Doctors' tips to stay healthy during the holiday season

(StatePoint) The holiday season is a joyous time to reconnect with family and loved ones, but it also brings unique health and safety risks, according to doctors, who recommend a bit of extra vigilance to protect yourself and those close to you.

“During the hectic holiday season, it can be hard to carve out time to focus on your wellness. Awareness, along with the adoption of a few healthy habits, can help you and your family enjoy this special time of year in the best of health,” says American Medical Association (AMA) president, Jesse M. Ehrenfeld, M.D., M.P.H.

For a healthy, happy season, follow these tips and recommendations from the AMA:

1. Vaccination is the best protection against a number of serious respiratory viruses circulating this fall and winter. To protect yourself and your family, get up to date on your vaccines, including the annual flu shot, as well as the updated COVID-19 vaccine for everyone 6 months and older. Vaccines are also available to protect older adults from severe RSV. New tools to protect infants during RSV season include maternal vaccination as well as the monoclonal antibody immunization.

If you have questions, speak with your physician and review trusted resources, including getvaccineanswers.org.

2. Watch what you eat this holiday season. Pay particular attention to labels and avoid processed foods as much as you can, especially those with added sodium and sugar. Drink water instead of sugar-sweetened beverages, and eat nutritious, whole foods like fresh fruits and vegetables alongside richer holiday fare.

3. If you're consuming alcohol, drink only in moderation. The U.S. Dietary Guidelines for Americans defines that as up to one drink per day for women and two drinks per day for men, and only by adults of legal drinking age.

4. Make time to exercise during this busy time of year. A good rule of thumb for adults is at least 150 minutes a week of moderate-intensity activity, or 75 minutes a week of vigorous-intensity activity. Brisk walks, or even a family trip to the gym, can provide easy and fun ways to get off the couch and elevate your heart rate over the holiday season.

If you're traveling, don't forget to pack your sneakers!

5. Factors like holiday spending and navigating time with extended family can bring on extra seasonal stress. Invest in your mental health and manage stress by getting sufficient sleep, exercising and seeking help from a mental health professional when you need it.

6. Make smart choices and plan ahead if you're driving. In December 2021 alone, 1,013 Americans died in alcohol-impaired-driving crashes. Do not under any circumstances drive if you intend to drink. And if you are the designated driver, make a 100% commitment to sobriety.

7. Get your New Year's resolutions started early. Speak with your doctor or health care professional about quitting tobacco and nicotine use, and declare your home and car smoke-free to eliminate secondhand smoke exposure.

“Amid the holiday cheer, don't neglect your health and safety. By eating well, exercising, and taking necessary steps to stop the spread of respiratory viruses, you can help protect yourself against common seasonal health risks,” say Dr. Ehrenfeld.

Arizona Trail informational kiosk installed in Kearny

Kearny joins six other Arizona Trail Gateway Communities to host an informational kiosk, three of which are in the Copper Corridor. The kiosks are being funded by a grant by the Arizona Office of Tourism.

The seven communities with a kiosk are: Sierra Vista, Patagonia, Oracle, Kearny, Superior, Payson and Flagstaff. “The Arizona Trail is an amazing and beautiful connector of the communities across the Copper Corridor,” said

Mila Besich, Executive Director of the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition. “These new kiosks helping to promote the Gateway Communities along the Arizona National Scenic Trail are important additions helping visitors to learn more about the community they are visiting while also educating others on the Arizona Trail.”

She added that the kiosk in Superior is “gorgeous.”

OBITUARY

Robert Paul Brower

Dr. Robert Paul Brower passed away Nov. 3, 2023, at The Cottages Memory Center in Tucson, Arizona at the age of 95. He was born Sept. 2, 1928.

He is fondly remembered as a Family Practitioner in San Manuel where he started his practice in 1961 and worked there until two weeks after his 83rd birthday. He enjoyed the town, its people and saw many changes in the community over the years.

He enjoyed travel, which he got from his father, and enjoyed hiking, birding, but most of all he loved his profession. He would always express how much he liked people and wanted to help them get well or be healed. The concern he had for others was evident by his caring nature. He once said he delivered nearly 600 babies, many of whom are grandparents now.

Perhaps much of his integrity was ingrained in him from being an Eagle Scout or competing in sports. He was a collegiate diver, gymnast and cheerleader at the University of Illinois. He also advocated that his two sons learned different sports also.

After the University of Illinois, he was accepted into medical school at the University of Tennessee in Memphis where he met his wife, Patricia. Upon graduating from medical school, he took an Army Internship at Tripler Army Hospital in Honolulu, Hawaii. After completing the Internship, he was stationed at Fort Lewis in Tacoma, Washington where Robert (Bobby) was born. The Army then sent Dr. Brower to Korea, where he missed the birth of his second son, Steven.

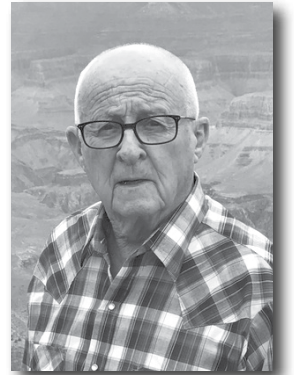

After finishing his Army obligation, he was in Private Practice in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. But soon he realized that he wanted more time with his family, so he decided on an industrial medicine job in West Virginia for a couple of years, but his family did not care for the weather. Arizona looked so much nicer. So, in 1961 he decided to venture to San Manuel, Arizona, where he became a highly respected, accomplished and dedicated physician.

He continued his obligation to the military and joined the Air Force Reserves at Davis Monthan Air Base in Tucson. After 20+ years, he retired from the military as a Lieutenant Colonel.

Of all that he accomplished, he enjoyed his life and practice in San Manuel the most. He had many friends and enjoyed working with all his colleagues at the San Manuel Hospital and Clinic. Dr. Brower was respected and loved by so many, not only because of his huge generosity and deep compassion, but his outpouring of love for others.

He insisted until he could not do so any more to not have a service upon his death. He wanted only a private get together with his family, saying there was no need for a lot of fuss. If people wanted to toast him and think nicely of him, that would suffice. We will honor his wishes even though there are many who want to celebrate his life.

Lighten up the holiday season at special ceremony in Kearny

While the holiday season is presented on film and in songs as being all about happiness, giving and cheer, this is the quintessential time for hustle and bustle of the merry kind, with socializing and shopping for all! Our moods are lighter and brighter, smiles come more easily, and we plan for how to give, love, live and have a great time with family and friends.

Many of us do such things and take full enjoyment of this time of year, that is. Yet, for some, this long season with intermittent bouts of normal activities, which provide them some sense of stability, shutting down and leaving them alone with their memories can be an extremely dark and difficult time of renewed mourning the loss of one or more persons near and dear to their heart.

Responding to this truth, the Copper Basin Jr. Chamber of Commerce is inviting all who desire to do so to join in lighting up the night on Sunday, Dec. 10, with both an Angel Wing Dedication Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony and Luminarias. This is a way to be among others who understand your pain and to have a little memorial for your dearly departed, while helping others in more than one fashion.

Gather in front of the Kelly Haddad Admin building, located at 355 Alden Rd. in Kearny, for the twin ceremonies of remembrance that will start at 5:30 p.m. with the Kearny Christmas tree, upon which everyone is welcome to hang an angel wing while announcing the name of their loved ones.

Following the tree ceremony will be a lighting of luminarias, where everyone is welcomed to say the name of their loved ones along with a message, and there will be a video presentation of photos.

The cost of each wing is $3 and Luminarias with candle are $2 each. Send your photos to Emilia at copperbasinchamber@gmail.com or Terrece at Tflowers@kearnyaz.gov by Thursday, Dec. 7. Proceeds from the ceremonies will go toward funding the Chamber Scholarship.

So, come out and celebrate life, while helping out the local youth and aiding your fellow man by giving and taking comfort in this sharing of memories.

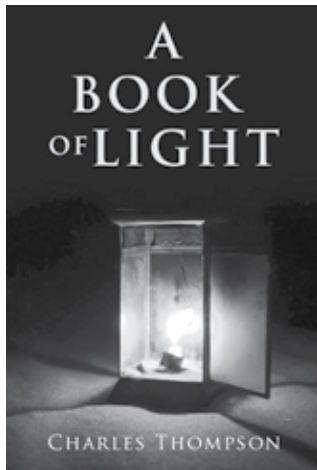

You're invited ...

The San Manuel boys' basketball team is prepared to start their 2023-2024 season with 12 players making up their team, with Andy Monfred as their head coach.

The season began Monday, Nov.

On Wednesday, Nov. 29, the boys will host Fort Thomas with a start time of 7 p.m. On Nov. 30, they will travel to face Baboquivari.

"The main thing I can say about the team this year is we are very young, with little to no varsity game experience on the team this year," Coach Monfred said. "We lost all five starters from last year, and we are looking to get better and build a program that can compete with some of the great teams in our area. The first week of the season will be a huge test playing our rival Ray, followed by the number two team in the state, Baboquivari, and the number five team in the state all in our first week of action."

Be sure to come out Wednesday night to the San Manuel High School gym and cheer on our Miners! #minerpride

Rome, Zazueta to coach 2023-24 San Manuel girls' basketball team

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Copper Area News

The San Manuel girls' basketball team is gearing up for their 2023-2024 season. The team will be led by head coach AJ Rome, and assistant coach Victoria Zazueta, a former Lady Miner and defensive player of the year. There is a common vision shared between the coaches and athletes, and that is to get the community into the seats of the gym. The team has plans to make every game something you won't want to miss.

"This upcoming season is going to be one to remember and we're excited to have the town be a part of it," said junior Andrea Nabor, 2022-2023 1A Tucson Northwest All-Region Honorable Mention. "We're coming back with all but one of our returning players and we added about four new players. This is more than we've had the last two years I've played. We've been working really hard during preseason, running, lifting and getting into shape and getting our plays down. My expectations are pretty high this year. We have some great new talent and returning talent from last year. I'm excited to see what my junior season brings to us and the new opportunities it will open up."

Not only does the team wish to have the support of the community this season, but they are planning on giving back to the community, with future projects designated to help out their community.

"This season, I'm expecting us to start strong and improve on what we learned from Coach Rome and Victoria last year," added senior Jasmine Sanchez, 2022-2023 1A Tucson Northwest Player of the Year. "I think we will be even stronger than we were last season and I really love how much we've bonded already. It feels like we're all on the right page and our goals are the same. We have everything we need to go far, I think. We have players of the year, defensive players of the year, a coach of the year and a whole team of players who want to play hard. Coach Rome and Victoria do a lot to make sure we are prepared for every team. Rome loves basketball more than anything and Victoria was a former player here and Defensive Player of the Year, so they've really shown us a lot and helped us improve. We are really focused on bringing home a conference title and showing the community our capabilities. We want everyone to come out and support our team and we want to reach out to the community and start doing things to improve the Tri-Com. We're going to do our best to make every game the event to be at. Our team has big plans and I hope everyone has a chance to see what we can do."

"Over the last five years, the girls' basketball team has been the most successful clubs on campus aside from softball," said Coach Rome. "In my time as coach, we've had a Region Player of the Year, a two-time Offensive Player of the Year, two Defensive Players of the Year, and a two-time Coach of the Year. Not to mention, a valedictorian who has come back to coach, as well as having multiple academic Top 10 student/athletes."

The girls kicked off their season with a home game against Ray on Nov. 27, debuting their new uniforms for the season. Information on this game was not available at press time. Student-led fundraiser garners more

The Superior High School Future Business Leaders of America student organization hosted the tastiest fundraiser of the year! For the past nine years, minus a two-year hiatus due to COVID restrictions, student leaders from FBLA have hosted this event to bring awareness to food insecurity in our community while also raising money for the Superior Food Bank.

The community gathered last week for an all-you-can-eat soup and salad supper at the Superior Junior Senior High School multi-purpose room. Those attending received a custom designed bowl, which were created by the students at Superior Junior-Senior High School. The student group raised a little over $2,000 for the Superior Food Bank.

Many donations were given to help defray most of the costs associated with the fundraiser. The Woodman of the World donated 125 bowls. The

“On behalf of our neighbors, Superior Food Bank would like to thank the FBLA students, sponsors and community for their support. The annual Fill-A-Bowl dinner provides great food for attendees and helps Superior Food Bank provide nutritious food for our neighbors in need,” said Angel Preciado, treasurer of the Superior Food Bank

Stay safe while decorating for the holidays; APS offers tips to avoid injuries

A festive display of lights and decorations can add to the holiday cheer, but without safety steps, it can also send you to the emergency room. According to the Consumer Product Safety Commission, there are about 160 decorating-related injuries every day during the holiday season. Almost half of the incidents involve falls from ladders. And inside there are more than 1,000 candle-related fires each season and hundreds of fires started with Christmas trees.

APS offers these safety tips to avoid holiday decorating dangers:

- When stringing lights outside, use a wooden or fiberglass ladder, and be sure to stay away from overhead power lines. Only use your ladder on level ground.

Don't use the top rung and don't lean away to hang decorations.

- Avoid stringing any outdoor lighting or electrical cords where water from irrigation or sprinklers may be present.
- Check for labels showing the lights have been certified for outdoor use. Discard light sets with broken or cracked sockets, frayed wires or loose connections.

- Use more than one circuit to avoid overloading household wiring. Follow the manufacturer's recommendation for the number of light strings that can be connected safely.
- Consider using LED holiday lights, which run much cooler than their traditional counterparts, are less of a fire risk and use much less energy.
- Turn off holiday lights before going to bed or leaving the house.

It's also important to stay safe inside the house:

- If using a live holiday tree, make sure to add water often to the tree stand. If the tree is losing a lot of needles or the needles become brittle, do not turn on decorative electrical lights. The heat from the lights could cause a fire.

- Place burning candles away from flammable items and blow them out when leaving the room.

For more ways to stay safe around electricity, visit aps.com/safety.

Denogeans first to send letters to Santa for Christmas

Santa Claus has once again teamed up with the Superior Sun and Save Money Market to collect the letters for all Superior children who want to send their letters to Santa.

Gunner and Kaylee Denogean have prepared their letters to Santa Claus and want to encourage all the children of Superior to drop off their letters at the special mailbox at Save Money Market. All letter received at the magic mailbox at Save Money Market will be published in the Superior Sun on Dec. 20.

Gunner and Kaylee shared their letters to Santa with the Superior Sun. The brother and sister duo shared a bit about their favorite holiday traditions as well.

Kaylee Denogean is eight years old and is a third grader in Ms. Nichols class at the John F. Kennedy Elementary School. Her favorite subject in school is art and she loves to play softball. She also loves to ride horses and is hoping to get a new pony soon. She is asking Santa for Horse

Croc Charms and a horse key chain. Her love for horses and equine life is inspiring her to want to become a horse trainer when she grows up.

One of her favorite parts of the holidays is seeing what kind of surprise her nana and tata give her.

Gunner Denogean is 10 years old and is a fifth grader at John F. Kennedy Elementary. He is in Ms. Adams class and his favorite subject is Math. When he grows up, he wants to be a detective police officer.

His favorite part of the holidays is getting to spend time with all of his family and seeing all of his cousins. He is asking Santa Claus for several Marvel legends toys including Eric Killmonger and Hot Toys Shuri - Bo Katan which are action figures from his favorite movie Black Panther.

When he is not in school and doing other activities, he enjoys hunting with his family and is a prize-winning archery competitor.

Kaylee and Gunner are the children of Brandon and Tiffany Denogean of Superior.

The traditional mailbox drop off is located at the Save Money Market. Children wishing to send an email may send it to cbnsun@minersunbasin.com. Letters must be received by Thursday, Dec. 14, 2023, in order to be published in the Dec. 20, 2023, edition of the Superior Sun.

This year, Mr. Claus has given us permission to accept letters through our Facebook page (www.Facebook.com/CopperArea). Just send us a message (PM) with your child's letter to Santa.

Hurry and get your letters in quickly so they can be forwarded to the North Pole in plenty of time for the big day. The deadline to mail letters in Santa's special mailbox is Dec. 14. Santa needs time to get all the requests fulfilled.

Gunner and Kaylee Denogean are the first to mail their letters to Santa. They wanted to remind other kids NOT to use the mailboxes at the Post Office, but instead to use the special mailbox at Save Money Market.
