Roy C. Chavez

Kimberley Chavez-Lopez

Frank Gerola

Friends and family will host a Celebration of Life for Roy C. Chavez, Kimberley Chavez-Lopez and Frank Gerola.

A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, Dec. 4, 11 a.m., at the Presbyterian Church of Superior, located on the corner of Magma and Lime. Masks are required inside the church. Luncheon will immediately follow the services at the Los Hermanos Ballroom, 835 Hwy. 60.

Final day to voice concerns for redistricting is Saturday

This week, the towns of Hayden, Winkelman and Superior joined other rural towns in Eastern Arizona to show support for a proposed rural legislative district in Eastern Arizona.

The initial maps for Arizona's redistricting process were approved on Sept. 14, 2021, by the Arizona Independent Redistricting Commission (IRC). The approved grid maps are of equal populations for the congressional and legislative districts as required by the state constitution.

Following the 2020 Census, the Independent Redistricting Commission began hosting a series of workshops and open houses to redraw the legislative district lines to reflect the new population.

Almost immediately, a group of citizens in Rural Eastern Arizona began campaigning to redraw the lines to favor the rural towns.

This statement was made to the Commission:

"The citizens of Rural Eastern Arizona have these several months been calling on you to respect our Communities of Interest and restore our rural voice to the Legislature. Now we join with our neighbors of Urban Apache Junction, Gold Canyon, and San Tan Valley to respect their Communities of Interest, as well! Urban must be joined with Urban, and Rural joined with Rural. Do not diminish either of our votes and voices by mixing and combining us!

"We respect our Reservation neighbors, but rural Eastern AZ communities are not their communities of interest. Remove our communities, incorporated and unincorporated, from their district, and keep like-minded Flagstaff with the Navajo Nation.

OBITUARY

Frank Ray Ynclan

Frank Ray Ynclan, 68, passed away peacefully in his home in Show Low on Nov. 8, 2021. He was born on Oct. 25, 1953, to Bill and Eva Ynclan. Frank was born in Ray and raised in Kearny. He was the brother of Bill Ynclan Jr. and Olga (Katrina) Ynclan.

Frank is survived by his wife, Donna, and his children, Brandon Ynclan, Kaylee Wise and Linsey Beam.

He grew up in Kearny where he worked at Phelps Ford, as well as the nearby Copper mines. He was also an avid drummer that traveled around the state with his band playing at local venues.

After Frank and Donna married, they moved to Show Low, then eventually made the Valley their home. The Mesa/Gilbert area is where they raised their family and where Frank worked as an outside salesman for Phoenix Fuel, Napa Auto Parts, and American Filter. In 2019 Frank retired and moved to his late father's home in Show Low.

In retirement, He lived his best life spending his days hunting/fishing, working on projects around the house and enjoying life in the mountains. He was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed hunting both big game as well as small game.

Frank was a loving grandfather (Papa) to Adriana Ynclan, and father-in-law to Cassandra Ynclan, Mathew Beam, and Daniel Wise. He loved spending time with his family and friends and enjoyed his time fishing with his granddaughter.

The unexpected loss of Frank shocked and devastated both his friends and family. Those who knew Frank, knew it was impossible not to like him. Frank, you will be forever in our hearts.

Frank's family welcomes written memories and photos of Frank. Your memories can be emailed to FrankYnclanMemories@gmail.com.

Electric light parade, winter festival Saturday in the Copper Basin

Are you ready for "Sweater Weather?" There are only three days until the Electric Light Parade Saturday, Dec. 4. Are your lights in working order and are the batteries charged?

The parade line up is at the area by the Teen Center with smaller floats lining up in front of Kearny Town Hall and larger floats will line up on Jamestown starting at 5 p.m. with the parade starting at 6 p.m. and ending at the GKI. Since it is dark at 5 p.m. it is hard to have to write last minute notes for the MC, therefore it is important to have a legible script ready at parade lineup.

Uptown on Alden there will be vendors with their homemade items which make great gifts. There is no charge for the parade entries nor for the vendors. Alden Rd. will be closed until 10 p.m. between Horizon Health and Wellness and Ace Hardware as soon as the parade ends.

One of this year's vendors will be the Ray Bearcats PTO with the softest and cuddliest of fundraisers. The PTO will be selling Build-A-Bearcat. What?! How cool? For just $20 you will receive one 16" Bearcat ready to be stuffed, 8 oz. of stuffing, one white shirt to decorate and a birth certificate. The PTO requests that their order forms be downloaded, filled out and prepaid so they can keep things orderly. Anyone wishing to Build-A-Bearcat should can go to <https://bit.ly/Build-A-Bearcat> to fill and sign and send to the PTO email address raybearcatspto@gmail.com. The Bearcats are super cute so reserve yours today. The PTO will also have Do-In-Yourself Christmas ornaments.

The only two people not planning on attending the festivities will be Santa and Mrs. Claus. They are currently quarantining so that they will be healthy for Santa's big day (Christmas Eve). But don't despair. The young ladies who are volunteers with the Jr. Chamber of Commerce will be dressed as princesses and will happily pose with children for photos.

So dig out those sweaters (ugly or otherwise) and get into the spirit of the holidays.

Riley Henley and Alydia Henley McEuen are the first to mail their letters to Santa Claus.

James Carnes | CBN

Two Dudleyville girls are first to mail letters to Santa

Riley Henley and Alydia Henley McEuen are the first to mail their letters to Santa Claus.

Riley is eight years old wants Santa to bring her a big toy motorcycle you can ride, a Alex Plushy, a black wig, a new snow globe and new pants.

Alydia is seven and in her letter she asks for a big toy car you can ride, a doll house with lots of dolls, a shopping set and a Alex Plushy. Both girls say they have been nice and live in Dudleyville with their parents and attend Ray Elementary School in Kearny.

Copper Basin children can mail their wishes to Santa in the two special mailboxes in the area: at the Hayden Library and in front of the Old Time

Pizza in Kearny. Children wishing to send an email may send it to cbnsun@minersunbasin.com. Letters must be received by Friday, Dec. 17, 2021, in order to be published in the Dec. 22, 2021, edition of the Copper Basin News

This year, Mr. Claus has given us permission to accept letters through our Facebook page (www.Facebook.com/CopperArea).

Just send us a message (PM) with your child's letter to Santa.

Hurry and get your letters in quickly so they can be forwarded to the North Pole in plenty of time for the big day. The deadline to mail letters in Santa's special mailbox is Dec. 17. Santa needs time to get all the requests fulfilled.

Hayden-Winkelman Unified School District has been selected to be part of Learning 2025 Initiative: a national push to transform America's education system

In a bold effort toward a holistic redesign of our nation's schools, Hayden-Winkelman Unified School District has been selected to join the Learning 2025 network of districts to help advance student-centered, equity-focused, future-driven education, administered by AASA, the School Superintendents Association. The more than 100 "demonstration systems" represent a collection of forward-leaning urban, suburban, and rural districts serving as national models to help guide and reposition partner districts efficiently by sharing successful practices and successes, as well as challenges.

"Serving as a demonstration site by participating in this initiative is an honor for Hayden-Winkelman Unified School District," said Jeff Gregorich. "We look forward to working with other school districts from across the country to learn more about their strategic improvement efforts. In addition, our staff will be able to network with peers nationwide and share strategic ideas and winning solutions in our collective effort to strengthen our communities and raise student outcomes."

"Our goal is to galvanize and synergize thought leaders from all sectors to emerge from the pandemic in better shape than they were before," said Daniel A. Domenech, executive director, AASA. "This initiative will ensure that educators are empowered and equipped to meet whole learners' needs by personalizing and customizing instruction involving students in designing their own learning and coordinating resources to support ALL children's overall growth and well-being."

An AASA Learning 2025 Demonstration System will contribute to national research, practice and policy and network, collaborate, and learn with school systems that are committed to supporting the whole learner, ensuring anti-marginalization, and adopting future-driven practices and move their district forward with research-based recommendations to provide all learners with a bright future.
