OBITUARIES

Tomas S. Palacios

Tomas S. Palacios of Superior passed away on Monday, Dec. 12, 2022. Tomas was born on June 18, 1945, to Hilario and Jessie Palacios in Los Angeles, California. The family moved to Jerome, Arizona, then moved to Superior, Arizona, making that their final move and, ironically, moving to 207 Pinal Ave., next door to the Gallegos family. Tomas became friends with Gloria Gallegos, they attended the same schools, became sweethearts from the sixth to the eighth grade, and they got married at 18 years old on Nov. 15, 1965.

Tomas began working for Magma Copper Company in 1967 and stayed until the mine closed in 1982. Tomas then moved with his family to Alameda, California, and worked as a handyman for almost two years. He was offered a job as a mechanic supervisor for Freeport McMoran in Tembapura, Indonesia, for three years until he was injured and had to return to the United States, moving back into their home of 53 years in Superior, a home that originally was from Ray-Sonora, Arizona.

Everyone knew that Tomas had a passion for carpentry. He was a hard-working man who strived for perfection and took great pride in his work. He enjoyed his time in Florence, Arizona, in prison ministry. He was a motivator, inspiring people to never give up. He loved giving a hand to those in need, both emotionally and spiritually. He had a great sense of humor and found joy in making people laugh.

Tomas was a great husband, father, and grandfather. He enjoyed being around his family. Tomas was known as "Tio Tom" for many, even those who were not even family, and he loved it. His favorite food was homemade tortillas, and he always asked women if they knew how to make them. However, he enjoyed a nice bowl of butter pecan ice cream and tapped the empty bowl with his spoon for a second serving. Tomas loved learning new things. When Google came out, if someone did not know the answer to his question, he'd say, "Google it!".

Tomas is survived by his wife of 58 years, Gloria Palacios; and daughter, Diana Palacios Garcia. He has one grandson, Israel P. Fuentes, and two granddaughters, Monique Vitalia Garcia and Crystal Ivon Garcia. Tomas has five brothers: Larry Palacios, Joe (TJ) Palacios, Autry Palacios, Alex (Cala) Palacios, and Gilbert Palacios.

Tomas was a true friend and was loved by many. He will truly be missed and is forever imprinted in our hearts.

Services for Tomas will be held Tuesday, Dec. 27, 2022, at the Magma Club. Visitation is set to begin at 1 p.m. followed by Funeral Service at 2 p.m. He will be laid to rest at Fairview Cemetery.

Socorro Ramirez Alvarado

Socorro Ramirez Alvarado entered eternal rest peacefully surrounded by her family on Dec. 18, 2022, at her home in Superior at the age of 93.

Socorro was born on June 28, 1929, to Inez Cano Ramirez and Refugio Ramirez in Parral, Chihuahua, Mexico. Socorro was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, daughter and sister. Socorro was hard working, kind and generous in her love for her children and grandchildren; she made sure her home was always open to any family in need and there was always food on the table. Socorro was deeply loved and will be greatly missed by so many.

Socorro is preceded by her husband of 65 years, Ascencion Alvarado. She met him in Juarez, Mexico and, after they wed, went on to have 12 children with him. Socorro is also preceded by three of her children, Rodolfo Ramirez Alvarado, Salvador Ramirez Alvarado and Edward Ramirez Alvarado.

Socorro is survived by nine of her children, Juan Victor Ramirez Alvarado, Carmen Sellers, Rosie Ramirez Alvarado, Ricardo Ramirez Alvarado, Elvira Dorado, Sylvia Alvarado, Daniel Ramirez Alvarado, Jorge Ramirez Alvarado and Ascencion Ramirez Alvarado Jr.; and her sister, Teresa Mejia. Socorro is also survived by 30 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Services for Socorro will take place Thursday, Dec. 29, 2022, at St. Francis of Assisi. Visitation is set to begin at 9 a.m. followed by Rosary at 9:30 and Mass at 10. She will be laid to rest at Fairview Cemetery.

Family was assisted with exceptional service by Superior Funeral Home.

Superior Fire Department to assist Santa

Santa Claus will be escorted by Superior Firefighters on Christmas Eve, a small layover during his flight around the world.

Debbie Torres | Superior Sun

The Superior Fire Department has been working with Santa's team at the North Pole and both agencies are reporting that the weather is expected to be uneventful, on Christmas Eve.

"It will be clear but chilly on Christmas Eve with the daytime high of 66 degrees and a nighttime low of 40 degrees," explained Elf Sunny McWeather, the lead weather reporter at the North Pole.

It was rumored that the Grinch and Associates were attempting to dismantle the tradition, but after a series of negotiations, it was determined that the Superior annual Santa drive was a time honored tradition in the community and must continue.

"Grinch and Associates saw the recent years of bad weather and covid restrictions as an opportunity to stop spreading joy and good cheer through this tradition," said an unnamed source close to the Grinch.

The clear weather will ensure that Santa will be able to make a longer stop in Superior to ride on the fire truck with the Superior Fire Department greeting families throughout Superior. Air Evac 7 out of Pinto Valley will transport Santa to Superior and he is expected to arrive at 4:45 p.m. at the landing zone near the (school parking lot) Fire Station located on Golf Course Rd.

"The reindeer will be taking a break at an undisclosed location near Pinto Valley," stated Director of Reindeer Health and Safety Rayna Redknose. During their break the reindeer will be fed their special diet to ensure they can make the rest of the journey across the world.

Superior Fire Chief JP Perez explained that once Santa is loaded, they will drive to the Arboretum and Superior Highlands neighborhoods. Following those two neighborhoods, they will then proceed to the north side of town to travel each street. Children who come out to greet Santa and his team, will be

Los Peligrosos Car Club hosts toy drive,

Los Peligrosos, the local car club in Superior, hosted a benefit event earlier this month to raise money for Melissa Allison through a corn hole tournament and raffles. Melissa was diagnosed with stage four cancer. Earlier this month, the Superior Fire Department also hosted a spaghetti dinner to benefit the family; her husband also serves with the Superior Fire Department.

Los Peligrosos also hosted a toy drive during their event to provide toys to the Superior Fire Department for their annual Christmas Eve Santa visits. The events were held at the Besich Park. Hundreds of toys were donated through the event and were delivered to the Superior Fire Department.

The event was another example of the love and generosity within the community of Superior. Thirty-two teams entered the tournament all of the registration fees and raffle money was donated to the Allison family.

Zoey Allison, daughter of Melissa Allison assisted with awarding the winners of the Cornhole Tournament. First place went to Andrew Lopez and Jesse Lopez; second place, Adam Navarrette and Angel Cardena; and third place, Jess Baltierra and Badrian Contreras.

The Presbyterian Church of Superior would like to thank everyone who has supported us in our fundraising. This year we have helped numerous people with food and utilities. We have helped the homeless, domestic violence shelter, food bank, Optimist Club, Police Department with their toy drive, Senior Center and 15 children and 6 families through the Angel Tree program. We have also been able to donate to the Superior School District for children in need and to the Fire Department for a Christmas meal. This would not have been possible without your donations. Thank you!

Merry Christmas with love and prayers.

given a gift from Santa.

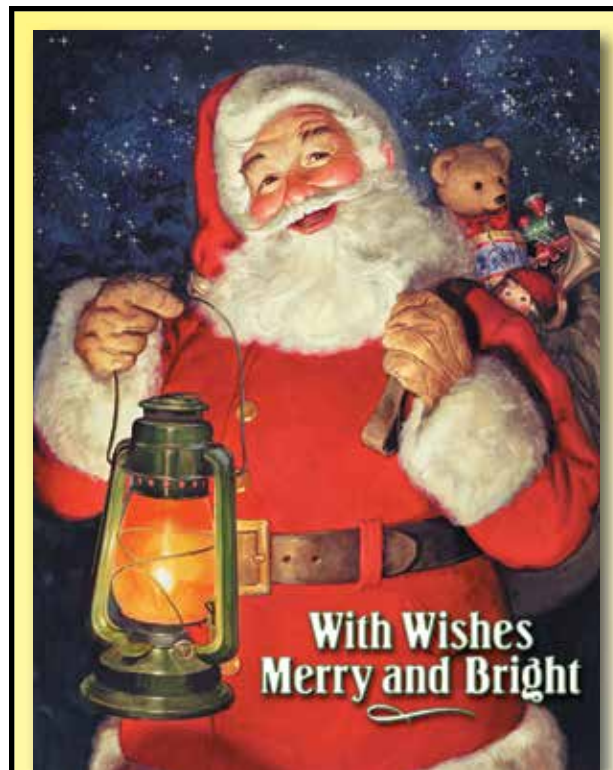

It is expected that Mrs. Claus will also be joining Santa during his visit to Superior. Her communications team was unable to confirm her attendance but sources close to the couple, reported that she is planning to join Santa. Following the visit in Superior, she is expected to return to the North Pole via a private sleigh. Several A-List elves will also be attending but a full manifest has not been released by the North Pole.

Data reports are indicating that the majority of the children in Superior are on the nice list, which will require a bit more time for Santa.

“This 17-year tradition is truly one that makes our community special we appreciate Santa giving us a little extra time on his big night,” stated Mayor Mila Besich.

Throughout the year, Santa and Superior Fire Department collaborates with a many local non-profits and corporations to ensure there are enough toys available for every child to receive something.

“The O’Donnell family’s annual Christmas party provides a majority of the needed toys, along with toy drives sponsored by the Peligrosos Car Club and Society Car Club. We are grateful for the additional support from these upstanding organizations,” stated Chief Financial Officer Elf Givney McGiverson.

Dear Santa ...

North Pole- Once again, December has arrived and I, Kris Kringle, am receiving letters from young people of every land, asking for special presents, of course, but also sharing love and good wishes. The children in the Copper Corridor have always made an impression on me, with their good natures and loving hearts, and this year is no exception.

Please enjoy these special letters and let them warm your heart as they have warmed mine. I read a few to Rudolph and it made his nose shine even brighter! The better to deliver your presents by, my dears!

Love,
Santa Claus

Our local children of the Copper Corridor have joined the ranks of hopeful letter writers this season. True to form, Santa's belly shook with mirth as he read each one. These are the ones Santa was especially tickled with, and generously decided to share with us.

Please be patient where we might make mistakes. Sometimes, things are hard for us to read that Santa, due to the twinkle in his eye, can read with expert precision every time.

Dear Santa,
I know you know who this is but just in case, it's me Karianna Ortega. this year I'm pretty sure I have been a good girl for you and Mom and Dad. I may have a little sassiness to my name but that's just me! I love to dance and sing and make TikTok's and play with makeup and press on nails. Im not asking for too much this year because I know you have a super long list for all the kids of the world!. I would like to ask for some pink slime, a Claire's gift card, a Stitch Squishmallow and some bow for my wild little puppy Darla because her hair is a hot mess! Also, can you bring my Bubba Javie some AirPods and some cologne (make sure it don't smell good though, so the chicks won't be after him!).

I think he's been good this year, kinda ... sorta. And last, I want to ask that Jesus keeps all my family and friends safe and healthy all year long and oh yea Santa, send some popsicles to Heaven for my Tara Junie, the twin pop kind, tell him to split it they way he knows how and send me the extra one, I can't do it quite like he did.

I'll leave some milk and cookies and make sure to set some reindeer food out for you and the reindeer.

Love,
Karianna Ortega

Accident at San Manuel Ray Blair Airport

On Sunday, Dec. 18, a Piper Cherokee 180 was involved in an accident at the San Manuel Ray Blair Airport. The pilot was practicing touch-and-goes when the plane veered off the runway. The pilot and passenger were able to walk away from the accident. The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) are conducting the investigation to determine a cause of this accident.

Panthers, Lady Panthers split games with Cicero Prep

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Superior Sun

The Panthers and Lady Panthers had a light schedule last week, with a home match against Cicero Prep. The boys' team was unable to beat Cicero Prep, which resulted in a 37-61 final score. The Lady Panthers took it to the Centurions, and walked away with the victory. The final score of the girls game was 38-23.

The boys and girls hosted Ray yesterday. The results were unavailable at press time.
