Kearny Elks Hoop Shoot uncovers some local hot shots

Practice, concentration, goals and success. These traits were obvious in all the young basketball enthusiasts who competed Saturday, Dec. 18, in the Elks Hoop Shoot Free Throw competition sponsored by the Kearny Elks Lodge.

Three age groups of both boys and girls were represented by 27 competitors from the school districts of Hayden, Ray and Superior. The schools determined their representatives through earlier competitions held in P.E. classes.

Winning first place girls are Ysenia De Los Reyes (age 8-9, Hayden), Noelle Duarte (age 10-11, Superior) and Rya Laguna (age 12-13, Hayden). First place boys are Joshua Ciilzco (age 8-9, Superior), Nathan Sinteral (age 10-11, Superior) and Aden Ochoa (age 12-13, Hayden).

First place winners representing the Kearny Lodge will move on to compete at the Arizona Elks East District Free Throw competition on Jan. 8, 2022, at the Chandler Boys and Girls Clubs. Winners of the District level move on to the Arizona Elks State competition with those winners advancing to Regional and National competitions. Regional finalists compete for a national title at the National Finals in Chicago and have their names inscribed in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Second Place Winners for girls are Alyvia Lease (age 8-9, Hayden), Maya Hong (age 10-11, Hayden) and Aleyna Ochoa (age 12-13, Hayden). Second place boys are Rodolfo Quesada (age 8-9, Hayden), Daniel Ortega (age 10-11, Hayden) and Lucas Gonzales (age 12-13, Hayden).

For over 45 years, the Hoop Shoot allows every boy and girl between 8 and 13 in an Elks Lodge community the opportunity to participate in a fun, age-appropriate program that sets them up for future success. Participation in the Hoop Shoot encourages kids to set goals and work hard. For more information on the Elks Hoop Shoot go to www.elks.org/hoopshoot.

The Kearny Elks would like to thank the Hayden-Winkelman Schools and the Superior Schools for encouraging their students to participate in the 46th Annual Local Hoop Shoot. They also offer a big thank you to the parents for taking the time with your children.

The Kearny Elks want to recognize the following people for their assistance: Pam Gonzales and Lydia Martinez from Hayden, Carmen Chavez and Manuel Ortega from Superior, and Stacy Johnson from Kearny.

Dear Santa ...

Christmas is coming. It will be here ever so soon. In every land, every country, every city or town or village - really, anyplace you can find on a map and many places that you cannot - children have written their holiday missives, expressing their heart's desires and are anxiously awaiting a Christmas visit from Santa.

The United States Postal Service site states, "Each year, hundreds of thousands of letters sent to Santa from children and families arrive at Post Offices around the country. Most letters ask for toys and games. Some ask for basic necessities. Some ask for help for themselves and their loved ones."

For as long as children have been sending letters to Santa, he has cherished these communications and shared them with his wife. In December of 1899, Santa decided to share a letter to be printed in a newspaper. The letter was quite simple. In it an unnamed girl said, "Dear Santa, If you haven't time to pick out things for me, just leave everything you've got."

The very next year, many more letters to Santa were printed in the same newspaper. A tradition was born. Though Santa has never explained the reason he started sharing the letters he receives and allows them to be printed, there are many theories which he has equally never denied as possibilities.

The chief theory is that with the increased population of the world, Santa was using this method of communication to seek out new helpers. Another theory, somewhat less likely to apply in all situations, is that the newspaper editor had been a very good boy or girl in their youth and Santa felt they deserved an extra present.

To read more about the history of Santa sharing his letters with newspapers, and more historical letters that were shared, visit the Tampa Bay Times for a great article by Christopher Spata, at <https://tinyurl.com/y9nvj3t6>.

Our local children of the Copper Corridor have joined the ranks of hopeful letter writers this season. True to form, Santa's belly shook with mirth as he read each one. These are the ones Santa was especially tickled with, and generously decided to share with us.

Please be patient where we might make mistakes. Sometimes, things are hard for us to read that Santa, due to the twinkle in his eye, can read with expert precision every time.

Christmas services at local churches

Christmas is one of the most important days in Christianity. Many churches have special services and celebrations to commemorate the birth of Jesus Christ. A few of our Copper Corridor churches are planning special services:

Living Word Chapel in Oracle will have a Christmas service on Friday, Dec. 24, at 3:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. In Kearny, the service take place on Dec. 23 at 5 p.m.

The Infant Jesus of Prague Catholic Church in Kearny will have a Christmas vigil at 6 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 24, as well as a 9 a.m. Mass on Christmas Day. St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Hayden will have a 4 p.m. Mass on Dec. 24 and a 10:30 a.m. Mass on the 25th.

Other church locations and times of services are listed in the regional church directory, found this week on Page 17.
