Mammoth citizens, officers offer strong support for chief at Council meeting

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
San Manuel Miner

Mammoth residents, officers and the former Police Chief have offered their unwavering support of serving Mammoth Police Chief Hank Mueller.

At the Jan. 18 Mammoth Town Council meeting, the Mueller's record was called into question on the meeting's agenda at the request of Councilman Joe Brewer.

There were around 30 citizens in attendance, as well as multiple Mammoth Town Police officers, former police chief and retired Justice of the Peace Rudy Lujan, and several Pinal County Sheriff's Deputies. During the open call to the public, multiple people spoke in praise of Chief Mueller, including a young Mammoth Police officer, and former chief Lujan, who helped appoint Mueller as his predecessor. Many citizens expressed their outrage and couldn't comprehend why the town would want to remove the police chief.

When it seemed like it would be multiple people rehashing the police chief's accomplishments and accolades, a citizen came to the podium to call out Councilman Brewer for professional misconduct, personal misconduct, and holding a personal vendetta to remove the police chief. This citizen urged the council to consider removing Councilmen Brewer for breaking codes of conduct, and policies of government.

Councilmen Brewer responded directly to the citizen.

"I have not attacked any of the council members. I have not attacked any staff members, and this (discussion of the Chief of Police's record) is on the agenda because it was brought up by a town citizen, requesting it. I'm doing what my job is, as a council member. A town citizen requested it be put on here, and it is on here. It took me a couple months to get it on here, because nobody wanted it on here, but it is on here now. I'm doing my job, so everything you said is complete lie," Brewer said.

More citizens continued on with pro-chief sentiment and comments. A couple citizens spoke on other town problems, like dealing with continual trespassers, speeding vehicles in residential areas, and the status of the neighborhood watch, but the main focus of the evening seemed to be Police Chief Mueller.

The Town Council met for a 10-minute executive (secret) session and the Call to the Public was reopened. A citizen called into question Chief Mueller's integrity, urging citizens to look up his records. He also stated that Mueller had a federal lawsuit filed against him and denounced all of the positive remarks made about the chief.

Another citizen came to the microphone with energetic hostility, and began to ask questions directly at the chief. This citizen started off by claiming Hank wasn't Chief Mueller's real name, then the citizen read a quote that

Educational event on opportunities provided by Hospice

Despite the rain and cold weather, there was a great turnout for the educational event at the Oracle Community Center last Monday, Jan. 16, 2023. There were seven representatives from Casa de la Luz Hospice, who took turns speaking about the vast array of help that this local hospice and palliative care provider offers to families and individuals struggling with either end-of-life needs or very difficult medical needs that may lead to Palliative support.

The Casa de la Luz team supports the vision of the founders of Casa de la Luz to reach the families of the Tri-Community. The late Lynnette Jarmillo, co-founder, grew up in Mammoth and raised her children in San Manuel. Her husband worked in the mines for 30 years.

Each member of the interdisciplinary team was present to offer education and answer questions about end-of-life. Jennifer Vanden Eykel, who holds a Master of Science in Nursing and is a Registered Nurse, opened the discussion about the Medicare benefit and the services that hospice provides. Kathleen Michon, who holds her Masters in Social Work, reviewed various social services that are available in Pinal County. She also reviewed final arrangement options and Five Wishes planning and how to set up wishes so family can speak for loved ones when they are no longer able to speak for themselves. When a patient does not qualify for hospice services then the palliative care services are an option. Theresa Isaacs, DNP, reviewed palliative care and answered many questions about services and explained differences of DNR (Do Not Resuscitate) and advanced directives. The team closed with Susan Hillman, Chaplain, reading a poem. As a team, the ladies look forward to serving the families of the Tri-Community.

As a thank you to the community, Casa de la Luz is offering a new educational event on Tuesday, Feb. 21, 2023, from noon to 1 p.m., at the Oracle Community Center. The topic is the Myths about Hospice and Palliative care. Casa de la Luz is very generously providing a free lunch for this very informative event, which will be graciously hosted by the Oracle Community Center.

2. The Court has set an Initial hearing on the 10th day of January, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. and a Publication hearing on the 14th day of March, 2023 at 11:00 a.m., at the Pinal County Superior Court, 971 North Jason Lopez Circle, Florence, Arizona 85132, before the Honorable Delia R. In addition, if you fail to appear, without good cause, the hearing may go forward in your absence and may result in an adjudication of dependency, termination of your parental rights or the establishment of a permanent guardianship based upon the record and the evidence presented to the court, as well as an order of paternity, custody, or change of custody in a consolidated family law matter and an order for child support if paternity has been established.

5. Notice is given that DCS is proposing to substantiate any allegations of abuse and/or neglect contained in the dependency petition for placement in the DCS Central Registry. The DCS Central Registry is a confidential list of DCS findings that tracks abuse and neglect. If the court finds your children dependent based upon allegations of abuse and/or neglect contained in the dependency petition, you will be placed in the DCS Central Registry. See A.R.S. § 8-804.

MAMMOTH COUNCIL

he claimed to have gotten from one of the chief's supposed Facebook page. The citizen then accused the police chief of being on the Arizona Brady List, and even distributed home-printed copies of the list in discussion. The citizen accused the chief of formerly brutalizing a suspect, to which the citizen then showed an enlarged picture of a man's face, swollen and covered in bruises, concluding their time.

Following all of the commotion, Brad Miller, the legal council for Chief Mueller spoke.

"Now I'm here today to publicly ask that we stop this goat-roping, and this is all caused by one particular member of the council, that insisted that we hear this nonsense, and that's Mr. Brewer. Mr. Brewer, I'm asking that you stop this libelous and slanderous statement against the chief..."

"It's not Mr. Brewer it's me," exclaimed the citizen that was previously at the podium, being silenced by the Mayor's gavel, calling for order.

Brad Miller continued, "...or else he will seek an injunction against you, and ask for damages. The chief has provided extraordinary service to this town in a very short period of time. He is a principled man seeking to do what's right for the people. We've talked about, and there's been discussions of integrity issues, completely false. We asked the Pinal county attorney for an opinion on that issue, and we have a letter signed by him, and dated today, which states that there are no pending litigation, no issues." Miller then called to question Mr. Brewer's police record, and urged the council to take action.

Following Miller, Police Chief Mueller spoke to the audience and council.

"I come before you as the Chief of Police because I am regarding the discussion of my position and my record that was placed on the agenda. I'd like to thank the council for the opportunity to speak on this item, and the people of Mammoth who I proudly serve, for attending this meeting and taking interest in our community issues and how our town leadership is taking on this issues that quite literally effect the whole family and their safety. This agenda item was meant as a negative, but I want to turn this into a positive just like all things I have done as your chief," he said.

Chief Mueller proceeded to discuss the positive changes he has made to the community, such as restoring the police back to 24-hour patrol, expanding and upgrading communications services and gear, saving taxpayer money by getting grants for equipment, and other ways to improve the police force, and community.

The Mammoth Council took no action on the item, treating the item as informational only. Most of the council appeared to not want to discuss any of these accusations openly.
