OBITUARIES

Jennifer Marie Safin

Jennifer Marie Safin, 35, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Dec. 21, 2020. She was born Nov. 8, 1985.

She grew up in San Manuel and graduated from San Manuel High School in 2004. She was a cheerleader, Rainbow Girl, and a member of the High School Choir. She graduated from Apollo College and was a licensed massage therapist. She used her God given gift of healing to touch so many people.

Even though she faced many medical issues and life trials, she always had a smile and loved to help others. Her faith is what helped her face each day. We shall miss her dearly but we have hope in the knowledge that she is with her Lord and Savior and is reunited with those who have gone on ahead of her, especially her grandma Diane.

She leaves behind her beloved children, Gianna, Gianni, Genaveeve and Giovanna; her parents, Barry and Judith Sharff; brother, Jacob (Samantha) Sharff; nephew, Jacob Sharff; and lots of uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

Services are pending and will be announced later.

It is only good bye for now but we will be together again. Love ya, Sweetie.

Jesus Jacquez

Jesus Jacquez, 67, passed from COVID-19 on Dec. 23, 2020, in Tucson. He grew up in Nogales and lived in the Tri-Community for 30 years.

Jesus is survived by his wife, Clarissa; son, Nathaniel (Jackie); daughter, Nicolette (Joe); brothers, Jose Luis (Irene) and George (Georgina); sisters, Rosa (Frank) Estrada, Rosario Jacquez and Esther (Sergio) Oliveros; and grandchildren, Frankie, Tony, Dominick, Donovan and Isabella.

He graduated Nogales High School, attended Aravaipa Central Arizona College and trained at the University of Arizona Meat Lab. Jesus worked at Magma for BHP for 20 years and for Asarco for 10 years.

He loved woodworking, riding ATVs, cooking, gardening, vacationing in Rocky Point and spending time with his grandchildren, family and friends. He also volunteered as a 4-H leader and helped with events at Mammoth Elementary School.

A celebration of life is planned for a future date.

Robert E. Cruce

Robert E. Cruce, a longtime resident of Oracle, passed away Dec. 29, 2020.

Robert was born Jan. 25, 1933 in Francis, Kentucky. Robert followed his parents to Arizona after his military service in the U.S. Army in 1954. Robert met and married his wife, Dorothy, in 1956. They raised six children.

Robert worked 30 years for Magma Copper Company, retiring in 1985. Robert also had a successful appliance repair business for several years.

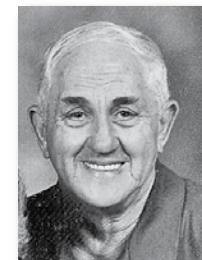

Being a silent philanthropist Robert helped many local people as well as other known charities. Robert always felt that one of his best accomplishments was being in on the ground floor of establishing the First Baptist Church of Oracle.

Robert's summer gardens always produced some of the best tomatoes, despite his belief that they were not as good as the ones in Kentucky growing up.

Robert is preceded in his death by his parents, Lynn and Addie; sister, Patsy; wife, Dorothy; and son, Thomas. He is survived by children, Dave (Joyce) Cruce, Kathy (Larry) Bache, Mikeal (Jacque) Cruce, Tim Cruce and Crystal Cruce. Robert is also survived by siblings, Edna Nell Ray of Marion, Kentucky, and Richard Cruce and Joan Benavidez, both of San Manuel. Robert also had 12 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

As Dad often quoted to all of his children, "That's the way life is, go out and be kind".

Fire Safety in the New Year

Happy 2021! I am not a big believer in New Year's resolution as more than 80% of them fail. However, I am a strong proponent of setting measurable and attainable goals. As you list out your goals for the New Year, don't forget about adding home safety goals to your list.

According to the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), 75 percent of all fire deaths and 73 percent of all fire injuries were caused by home fire incidents in 2019. A fire in a residential dwelling occurred every 93 seconds."

Here are some fire safety tips to help you set fire safety goals for your house:

- Make sure your home is protected by working smoke and carbon monoxide detectors. Half of all home fire deaths happen at night, when people are sleeping.
- Test your detectors once a month, and replace your smoke alarms when they're 10 years old. If you need help testing your detectors, please call the fire station. 520-465-5300
- Cooking is one of the main causes of home fires and home fire injuries. Make safety your first ingredient; stay in the kitchen when you are cooking at high temperatures. Fires can start when the heat gets too high or the stove is unattended. If you see any smoke or turn the burner off. If the grease catches fire, turn the burner off. DO NOT PUT WATER ON THE FIRE. Call 911 and get everyone out of the house

- Use candles with care. Unattended candles are an obvious fire danger. When you leave a room, blow out the candle. Or consider using flameless candles.
- If you have children living in your home or visiting, look for fire and burn dangers from their point of view. Never leave lighters or matches where children can reach them.
- Practice fire drills at home. Select a meeting place. Discuss what to do about windows. And instill in children never to hide when there is a fire.

The Pinal Rural Fire District wishes you and your family to have a fire safe year. If you have any questions regarding the suggestions above or you would like help setting fire safe goals for your home, please contact us at 520-465-5300.

The Mission of the Pinal Rural Fire & Medical District is to provide excellent customer service through Commitment, Honor, Strength and Innovation.

Teaching young kids gratitude extends beyond the holiday season

As the holiday season approaches, it is the perfect time to teach young children an important life lesson about gratitude that will last throughout the year.

Gratitude is a higher level concept that can be tricky to understand for toddlers and preschoolers, because of their developmental stage, tend to be self-focused. Talking with young children about being thankful for not only material things, but for acts of kindness from others, is one way to help them learn.

So, how do we teach our children to be grateful? Here are some tips that Arizona's early childhood agency, First Things First, gathered from child development experts:

Teach children to say thank you to everyone who does something for them – their server at a restaurant, the older sibling who helps them pick up toys, or the friend who gives them a birthday gift.

Talk about the things you are grateful for. This can be done in many ways, from a blessing before dinner to keeping a family gratitude journal.

Tell your kids why you are grateful for them. Remind your children of your own gratitude by using specific reasons why they are special and loved. For example: I appreciate the way you help your brother tie his shoes.

Support a charitable event or organization. Whether you are donating old clothes or toys, participating in a food drive, or even baking cookies for a new neighbor, talk to children about what those actions mean to those who receive the kindness.

Be consistent. Like all skills, gratitude is not learned in one lesson.

"Gratitude is a way of seeing the world

Elvis and Pearl Harbor

Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, Dec. 7, was last month. It is an important date in our history, Dec. 7, 1941, “a day that will live in infamy.” On that day the Japanese Navy attacked Pearl Harbor on the island of Oahu in Hawaii leading to the United States entering World War II. If you ever get the chance to travel to Hawaii, make time to visit the Pearl Harbor National Memorial and the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial which is located there.

While researching Pearl Harbor and the Memorial, I came across an interesting connection between Pearl Harbor, the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial and the King of Rock and Roll, Elvis Presley. On March 15, 1958, the 85th United States Congress authorized plans for a U.S.S. Arizona Memorial enshrined around the sunken battleship at the Pearl Harbor naval base. The memorial would need private donations to fund the project. The estimated cost of the project was $500,000.

In late 1960, editorials began appearing in newspapers around the country requesting donations for the memorial. It was stated that $200,000 was still needed to complete the memorial. Elvis' manager, Colonel Tom Parker, read an editorial in a Los Angeles newspaper and felt it would be a worthy cause to donate to and the publicity couldn't hurt either. On Jan. 11, 1961 at a press conference at the Hawaiian Village Hotel in Honolulu, Hawaii, it was announced that Elvis would be coming to Hawaii in March for a benefit concert for the U.S.S. Arizona

Memorial Fund.

The concert would be held at the Bloch Arena at Pearl Harbor. Colonel Parker insisted that all proceeds including concessions and Elvis souvenir sales go to the Arizona Memorial Fund. He told the press that he saw no reason that the benefit would raise no less than $50,000. He also announced that Elvis would remain in Hawaii for a few weeks after the concert to begin filming his latest movie, Hawaiian Beachboy. The film would also be known as Waikiki Beachboy before finally being produced as Blue Hawaii.

On March 5, 1960, Elvis Aaron Presley was discharged from active duty in the United States Army. He resumed his career immediately, recording multiple record albums and appearing in two movies, G.I. Blues and Flaming Star while filming a third Wild in the Country. He had two number one singles, Stuck on You and It's Now or Never. The soundtrack record for G.I. Blues was number one on the charts for 10 weeks. At age 25 he had sold over 80 million records. Elvis' music was being heard by a wider audience. Conservative radio stations especially in the Bible Belt were now playing his newer music where before they shunned the rock and roll star. His two years in the service where he served honorably helped win him new fans.

Tickets went on sale March 13, 1961 at the Sears record department at Ala Moana Shopping Center in Honolulu. Ticket prices were $3, $3.50, $5 and $10. They advertised that the first 1,000 people to purchase tickets would receive an autographed photograph of Elvis. Ringside seats were made available for $100. They were sold to businesses and corporate executives.

On March 25, 1961, Elvis landed at Honolulu Airport. He was greeted by 3,000 screaming fans, mostly teenagers. Later that evening, he performed at the benefit concert. Opening acts included comedian Minnie Pearl, singing quartet the Jordanaires, and musicians Boots Randolph, D.J. Fontana and Scotty Moore. Elvis performed 15 of his songs to an enthusiastic and screaming audience. Concert ticket sales brought in $52,000 exceeding Colonel Parker's goal. After concessions and donations at the door were totaled, the benefit concert raised $64,000 insuring that there would be a start of the memorial for Dec. 7, 1961, the 20th Anniversary of the Pearl Harbor attack. It would be Elvis' last live performance for eight years.

The publicity of the Elvis Presley benefit concert helped bring in more public and private donations from around the country. In April of 1961, U.S. Senator Hiram Fong of Hawaii, praised Elvis for the fundraiser during a speech asking the Senate to pass a bill requesting that Congress appropriate $200,000 for the completion of the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial. Aided by Hawaii's Representative in the House, Dan Inouye, the bill would be passed and the memorial completed in 1962. Over two million people visit the memorial annually.

The benefit concert was good for Elvis and good for the state of Hawaii. The making of the movie Blue Hawaii brought more fame and fortune for Elvis. Blue Hawaii would be Elvis' highest grossing film at the box office. The soundtrack for the movie would be the number one album on the Billboard charts for 20 weeks. For the state of Hawaii, the film highlighted much of the beauty of Oahu and Kauai and attracted more tourists to Hawaii. They soon had another tourist attraction with the opening of the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial that helps us manage the challenges we encounter. Now, more than ever, our children need to develop gratitude to increase their resiliency and overall wellbeing,” said Shannon Brown, Regional Director for FTF in Pinal. “Children will learn gratitude when they are surrounded by adults that exemplify this trait. Help young children embrace the beauty of gratitude by demonstrating an appreciation for the ordinary, joy in each day and offering support to others.”

As Regional Director for FTF in Pinal, Brown works with a variety of organizations and individuals to grow a community understanding of the importance of early childhood and how the first five years offer the opportunity for children to develop the skills they need to be successful students and successful adults.

Research shows that thankful people are usually more optimistic and are less depressed and stressed. So, when we teach our children to appreciate what they have – and what others do for them – we are helping them to become happier, healthier adults.

About First Things First — As Arizona’s early childhood agency, First Things First funds early learning, family support and children’s preventive health services to help kids be successful once they enter kindergarten. Decisions about how those funds are spent are made by local councils staffed by community volunteers. To learn more, visit FirstThingsFirst.org.

The property has been seized for forfeiture by the State of Arizona pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 13-2301 et seq. [Organized Crime and Fraud], §§ 13-4301 et seq. [Forfeiture], and more particularly, § 13-2317 [Money Laundering]. The seizure and conduct giving rise to forfeiture took place in Pinal County, Arizona. Any person claiming a lawful interest in the seized property must file a verified claim in the Superior Court of Pinal County satisfying the requirements of A.R.S. § 13-4311 [Judicial in rem forfeiture proceedings] paragraphs (E) and (F) within thirty (30) days after service of this notice. Copies of the claim must be mailed to the seizing agency, Pinal County Attorney's Office, the Attorney for the State, Deputy Pinal County Attorney James W. The date, the identity of the transferor, and the circumstances of the claimant's acquisition of the interest in the property. 5. The specific provisions of A.R.S. Chapter 39, Title 13 relied on in asserting that the property is not subject to forfeiture. 6. All facts supporting each such assertion. 7. Any additional facts supporting the claimant's claim. 8. The precise relief sought. F. Copies of the claim shall be mailed to the seizing agency and to the attorney for the state. No extension of time for the filing of a claim may be granted. If no such claim is timely made, forfeiture of all interest in the seized property of any person who does not so claim will be applied. A person who has failed to timely file a proper claim will not be a party, will not be represented, and will not receive further notice of any proceeding. By law, no extension of time for the filing of a claim may be granted. The Complaint, when filed by the State, may be pursuant A.R.S. § 13-4311, or it may seek relief under all of A.R.S. § 13-2314, particularly (C), (D), (E), and (F), as well as under A.R.S. §§ 13-4312, 13-4313, and 13-4314. The property was seized for forfeiture by officers of the Pinal County Attorney's Office and/or other Arizona law enforcement agencies. If you have not previously received notice of its seizure for forfeiture, this is also notice pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-4306(C). Owners, interest holders and/or claimants who have filed a claim may have remedies available pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 13-4301 et seq. In some circumstances, a person claiming a lawful interest may file, within fifteen (15) days of notice of seizure for forfeiture, an application under A.R.S. § 13-4310(B) to obtain a hearing on the provisional return of the property pending the outcome of a judicial proceeding on its forfeiture. If an application for such a hearing is filed, it too, must comply with the requirements of A.R.S. § 13-4311(E) and (F), and must be filed in the Superior Court in Pinal County. Notice of the order to show cause hearing must be served upon the Attorney for the State at least five (5) working days before the hearing is held. Under A.R.S. § 13-4306(G), an owner of property may obtain the release of seized property by posting with the Attorney for the State a surety bond or cash in an amount equal to the full fair market value of the property, as determined by the Attorney for the State. The State may refuse to release the property if: 1) the bond or cash tendered is not in an amount equal to the full fair market value of the property; or 2) the property is retained as contraband or as evidence; or 3) the property is particularly altered or designed for use in conduct giving rise to forfeiture. If you post bond or cash in lieu of the property, the bond or cash and not the property will be subject to forfeiture. If you wish to post a bond or cash in lieu of the property, you may contact the Attorney for the State. If no Notice of Pending Forfeiture is made within sixty (60) days after the seizure of the property for forfeiture, any owner or interest holder may request release of the property, pending further proceedings pursuant to the forfeiture statutes, to be commenced within seven (7) years after actual discovery by the State of the last act giving rise to forfeiture. The request should be addressed to the Attorney for the State and should show that the requestor is an owner or interest holder. If the Attorney for the State declines to authorize release of the property by the seizing agency, the request may be addressed to the Superior Court for the County of Pinal. Any attempt to hide, transfer, convey, or sell any interest in any property seized for forfeiture, or to deposit it with a third party, place it beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, diminish its value or commingle it with other property may result in forfeiture of other property of equal value. If the property is conveyed, alienated, encumbered, disposed of, received, removed from the jurisdiction of the Court, concealed, or otherwise rendered unavailable for forfeiture, these acts may constitute facilitation of money laundering and money laundering, for which you may be criminally liable. Additionally, you may be sued for the fair market value of the property together with reasonable investigative expenses and attorney's fees, in addition to other criminal and civil remedies for fraud. Copper Area News is committed to providing our readers with as much information as possible. This graph shows the positive cases as of press time on Jan. 5, 2021. We have also included a graph showing the daily counts for the past week. Daily statewide case counts are recording higher than they were during the last peak this Summer and hospitals are becoming overwhelmed by COVID-19 patients.

There are a few points we would like our readers to consider when following this data.

1. This will continue to be a rolling total of positive cases. It does not reflect recoveries or deaths. The Arizona Department of Health Services does not break out this data.
2. If you see a reduction in numbers from day to day it is most likely due to a data entry error or mis-coding of a zip code (at the state level).
3. This is all zip code based data; most of our zip codes include unincorporated areas. There is no way to track exactly which areas each of the positive cases are. Example, Kearny and Winkelman each have small communities in their zip code that are not in the Town's incorporated boundaries.
4. If you live in Gila County, please follow the Gila County Health and Emergency Management, Facebook. They have maintained their data on recoveries and current positive cases.
5. You can follow other data such as ICU bed use, Ventilator use and hospital capacity online: <https://bit.ly/3inh280>

Working together, we can slow the spread of the virus across the Copper Corridor. Wear a mask in public, remain physically distant (6ft apart or more) and practice good hygiene (wash your hands frequently, sanitize high touch areas), stay home if you are not feeling well.

Shop/Explore at Home: San Manuel Historical Society Museum

In April, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community. Over the next several weeks, our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) will be featuring local businesses and non-profits, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses.

In San Manuel, the San Manuel Historical Society Museum has had to adapt to a new normal. For the volunteers serving as docents, it has meant face masks and limited access for members of the public. While the museum used to have regular hours open to the public, now it is only open by appointment.

The pandemic hasn't stopped society members from amassing a beautiful collection of gems and minerals and other memorabilia of a mining age that has passed into memory here in the Tri-Community. One of the most unique items in the museum's collection is an original street light from when San Manuel first became a town.

Looking for a unique gift, why not purchase one of Onofre "Taffy" Tafoya's books on the area, Los Mineros and Mother Magma? Both books are sold by the historical society and profits go directly to the San Manuel Historical Society.

The historical society depends on donations from patrons. It used to be supported through sales at a thrift store, located several doors down from the museum. Unfortunately, the thrift store fell victim to the pandemic and the crashing economy. The store was unable to remain open and closed its doors last year. The San Manuel Historical Society gladly welcomes donations, both historic and monetary. Currently, the society is looking for donations of photos of San Manuel when Magma was running it. Monetary donations are also needed. If you'd like to help, send your donation by mail to San Manuel Historical Society, PO Box 742, San Manuel, AZ 85631. The museum is located at 149 8th Ave.

Sharon Matthews is the current president and Kathy Phipps is the treasurer. If you'd like to make an appointment to tour the museum and view their wonderful collection, please call Sharon at 520-279-5002 or Kathy Phipps at 520-385-4465.

Gems and minerals donated by Arthur Roux and Lloyd Thomas.
