Free career expo app showcases Pinal County jobs

New and diverse job opportunities continue to come to Pinal County. Employers like Lucid Motors, Abbott Nutrition, Resolution Copper and Nikola are seeking employees with a variety of skills, experience and education. A new app called Achieve Pinal's Virtual Career Expo has been created to help Pinal County residents learn about careers that are in the county and how to prepare for them.

Achieve Pinal, a project of the Pinal Alliance for Economic Growth, is a community based effort dedicated to building a more competitive workforce through education and has developed the new app. Abbott Nutrition and Resolution Copper have sponsored the app's development and ongoing updates. "The pandemic has forced communities to adapt to alternate ways of learning, working and meeting. Virtual learning, telework and Zoom meetings have become the norm. Achieve Pinal's career exploration efforts also adapted to successfully reach our Pinal County audiences during the pandemic and into the future," said Bob Jackson, Career Expo Committee Chairman.

Career Expo is a free app, accessible to all, offering information about careers in Pinal County. The app offers a career exploration experience with professionals in a variety of careers. Career fields have been identified in partnership with ARIZONA@WORK. Some of the highlighted careers in the app include: Robotics, Cyber Security, Education, Veterinary Medicine, Public Safety, Utilities, Trades, Advanced Manufacturing/Technology, Medical, Finance, Agriculture, Hospitality and Engineering.

Careers showcased in the app will continually be updated to reflect the dynamic changes occurring in Pinal County.

Meet Ray Roaks, Superior Chamber of Commerce VISTA

You may have seen the friendly face of Ray Roaks around town over the past month. He recently moved to Superior to volunteer as the AmeriCorps VISTA volunteer for the Superior Chamber of Commerce. During his year term with the Chamber he will be helping the Chamber to build organizational capacity and assist with community projects that the Chamber is involved with.

Ray grew up in Rustburg, Virginia which is a small agricultural community of around 1,200 residents. He determined at a young age that he wanted to learn more about local government, especially urban planning and economic development. His family was involved in their county government, and growing up he learned how vital it was to make good decisions on community planning. Ray received his bachelor's degree in Urban Planning from Virginia Commonwealth. Following college he moved to the Washington, D.C. area to work with larger communities. He worked for Gaithersburg, Maryland and Alexandria, Virginia. When the COVID-19 Pandemic hit, Ray began looking for other career opportunities. He realized he wanted to work directly with members of the community, versus working behind the planning desk.

A friend of his told him about the AmeriCorps VISTA Volunteer program, which connects volunteers to work on capacity building across the United States. He was offered a VISTA position in Maine and in Arizona. He opted for Arizona to avoid the brutal winters of the north eastern America. Before coming to Superior, he did a

RESOLUTION COPPER

To our neighbors and our team,

Recently, Resolution Copper reached a significant milestone in our efforts to develop the project. On January 15th, the United States Forest Service published its Final Environmental Impact Statement after years of extensive community engagement and rigorous, independent study.

As with any complex undertaking of this size, there are differences of opinion and challenges as we try to balance all stakeholders' interests. But we feel fortunate to be part of a community invested in the review process, as evidenced by the substantial input and engagement the project continues to receive.

The publication of the FEIS is welcome progress, but we still have a long way to go. The next step in this process is completing the land exchange, which will allow the transfer of the land around the orebody while preserving vital recreation, conservation, and cultural areas. Also, permitting will be progressed with other authorities and a detailed feasibility study completed over several years to inform investment considerations on the project.

While this work is underway, we'll continue to partner with communities and Native American Tribes to ensure this project remains a source of mutual benefits. Resolution Copper is dedicated to being a good community partner and carving out a path towards a sustainable future for the region.

We're grateful to everyone who has shared this journey with us. To all of you that have contributed and participated so far—including our employees and contractors—thank you. And to all of those looking to join us as we help build a new chapter for the Copper Triangle, we look forward to moving the project forward together.

Sincerely,

Andrew Lye, Project Director, Resolution Copper

PINAL CAREERS

New and exciting careers are coming to the region and employers are seeking qualified workers. In addition to new employers, longstanding Pinal County employers are experiencing ever changing work environments and their careers will be highlighted in the app as well.

The labor analytics firm, Emsi, that ranks counties by various economic development factors, announced the results of their recent study last month. The study evaluated counties in terms of migration, overall job growth, skilled-job growth, educational attainment, regional competitiveness and annual job openings per capita. The study analyzed 601 counties throughout the United States including nine of Arizona's 15 counties.

Pinal County was the second-highest ranked county in Arizona and 29th in the nation. The Emsi report also stated that small and medium sized markets are becoming more attractive to workers rather than living in a larger, metropolitan area. The Career Expo app will aid students, workers and employers to access information about the exciting job opportunities in Pinal County. The county's job growth and job openings are amongst the best in the state and nation.

"During this unprecedented and challenging time, we have found new, different ways of connecting with each other. This mobile app provides students the opportunity to learn about careers in Pinal County through interactions with business professionals. A big thanks to the Pinal Alliance organization for leading this critical initiative," said Angela Doerr, Abbott Plant Manager.

Jobs are changing rapidly. This is a period of unprecedented change and the pace is accelerating. Technology is impacting work more and more everyday. Many jobs will require education beyond high school. Currently in Arizona, only 45 percent of adults have education beyond a high school diploma. Pinal County is currently at 36 percent. In order for Arizona to be competitive, increasing the number of individuals who are equipped with a high value professional certificate or degree, is an area of needed improvement.

"The students in Pinal County are the future of our community, and we want to do whatever we can to make sure they have access to an innovative experience that builds career exploration, connects students to employers, and improves post-secondary attainment," said Bryan Seppala, Resolution Copper Economic and Workforce Development.

To access the free app, visit the App Store and download CrowdCompass Events and search for Achieve Pinal's Virtual Career Expo. The app can also be accessed via any browser at: <https://event.crowdcompass.com/virtualcareerexpo>

Achieve Pinal is a regional grassroots effort dedicated to working with education, government, business and other interested community partners to develop a competitive workforce for future jobs by improving educational attainment in Pinal County.

Letters of Interest with Resumes being accepted to fill vacancy created by resignation of Justice of the Peace, Nancy Discher.

Pinal County Board of Supervisors to appoint a Justice of the Peace to serve remainder of the term through December 31, 2022.

FLORENCE – Nancy Discher who has served as Justice of the Peace over Precinct 5, Copper Corridor Justice Court, representing Oracle, Eaglecrest Ranch, SaddleBrooke Ranch and SaddleBrooke, since January 2015 has announced her resignation effective January 20, 2021.

The law that covers vacancies in county offices makes a distinction between whether the vacancy occurs within the first two years of an official's term or afterwards. In the case of a mid-term vacancy that occurs after the completion of the first two years of service, Arizona Revised Statute 16-230.A.2 is invoked. This states:

If a county office becomes vacant, the Board of Supervisors shall appoint a person of the same political party as the person vacating the office to fill the portion of the term until the next regular general election. If the person vacating the office changed political party affiliations after taking office, the person who is appointed to fill the vacancy shall be of the same political party that the vacating officeholder was when the vacating officeholder was elected or appointed to that office.

Judge Discher was elected as a Republican so the Pinal County Board of Supervisors is only accepting applications from registered Republicans for the Justice of the Peace position, Precinct 5, Copper Corridor Justice Court.

To be eligible for appointment as Justice of the Peace, Arizona law specifies that the following criteria be met by each potential candidate:

- Must be a legal Arizona resident living within the Precinct 5, Copper Corridor Justice Court
- Must be registered to vote,
- Must be able to read and write the English language and,
- Must be at least 18 years of age.

Interested individuals should take note of the application criteria and deadlines below:

• Letters of Interest and Resumes by 5:00 PM Friday, February 26, 2021.

There is no formal application to submit and any combination of a letter of interest with résumé and other documents outlining the applicant's qualifications for office shall be emailed, mailed, or submitted in person:

Shop at Home: Sun Flour Market & Cafe

In April, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community. Over the next several weeks, our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) will be featuring local businesses and non-profits, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses.

It is hard enough making it as a small business in a small town during normal times. But to balance those difficulties during a pandemic adds an entirely different twist to things.

Located at 203 Main Street in Downtown Superior, the Sun Flour Market and Cafe is full of wonderful gifts, furniture, jewelry and craft items. You will also find a menu full of homemade sandwiches, salads, soups, coffees and Italian sodas.

Economic development leaders across Rural America, constantly suggest creating spaces for rural pop-up shops. Mini stores that help to incubate retailers into larger operations. Sun Flour Market offers just that. Several vendors have taken up shop inside of Sun Flour Market and each mini-business offers a variety of items. Stop in regularly as the merchandise changes frequently.

Owner of the store and cafe, Willa Ficarra, always offers a friendly greeting and guarantees fresh and home made foods. Sun Flour Market features both inside and patio dining options. The store and cafe are open Wednesday through Saturday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sundays noon to 5 p.m.

Sun Flour Market and Cafe is participating in the Superior Chamber of Commerce Great Gift Card Giveaway. When customers spend at least $5 in each store they will be entered into the a drawing for a $100 gift certificate to that store. Two drawings remain in the campaign. In the first drawing, 13 Superiorites won $100 gift certificates to local businesses!

Willa Ficarra is the owner of the Sun Flour Market and Cafe.
