OBITUARY

Ricardo Provencio

Ricardo Provencio, 76, passed away in Phoenix on Jan. 27, 2023, due to cancer.

He is survived by his wife, Merlinda Provencio; daughters, Reina Ruppel, Christina and Francesca Provencio; grandchildren, Julia, Nicolas and Isabel Ruppel; brothers, Harey, Jessie and Ray Provencio; and sister, Gordie Alarcon.

Ricardo "Pro" Provencio graduated from Superior High School in 1965, earned his Bachelor's Degree from Arizona State University and earned his Master's Degree from the University of New Mexico. He enlisted in the Army and served a full tour of Vietnam, where he was awarded the Purple Heart. Pro worked for Chandler, Gilbert and Glendale Community Colleges, then at Arizona State University, and finished his career of educating and guiding young adults to their dreams at South Mountain Community College.

He had many hobbies and interests. Pro loved being outdoors, hiking, fishing, hunting and just enjoying nature. He loved his Sun Devils, Phoenix Suns, Cardinals and Diamondbacks. He was a born storyteller, which is the oldest form of communicating events, beliefs, traditions, values and goals that people have. Many have had the pleasure and lasting memories of him at speaking events, reunions, parties, or simply around the dinner table. You always walked away with another life lesson and a little more wisdom.

Pro's passion was the Chicano Movement. He dedicated 35 years as a counselor, director, and professor establishing and improving educational recruitment and retention for Latino/Hispanic Students. He was also actively involved in organizations such as Chicanos Por La Causa, Mexican American Educators to name a few. Pro was the first President of ASU's Los Diablos, an organization providing scholarships to Arizona Latino/Hispanic Students.

His devotion to his familia never wavered while actively involved in the community. Pro was always there for anybody, generous, loving and a pillar of support. If you had a problem, issue, or someone to bounce an idea off, advice, the answer was "Just Call Pro," and he was there for you day or night. His endearing demeanor was the right medicine for anything. His physical presence here will be missed by many, but if you had the honor of knowing him, his spirit will live in all of us forever.

Services will be held to honor the life and times of Ricardo Provencio at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church, located at 40 Main St. in Superior, on Saturday, Feb. 18, with Rosary at 11 a.m., Mass from 11:30 - 12:30 p.m. and Interment at 1 p.m. Interment will take place at Fairview Cemetery, 300 W. Sunset Dr. in Superior. In lieu of flowers, please feel free to donate in Ricardo Provencio's name to Rebuild Superior, Inc. www.rebuildsuperioraz.org/support-rsi/.1.

Please be aware the Renaissance Festival has began and can delay traffic up to an hour.

Town of Superior Youth Council to attend national conference

The Town of Superior Youth Council is raising funds to attend the 2023 National League of Cities Conference in Washington D.C. in late March.

During the trip the youth leaders will have the opportunity to learn additional leadership skills, network with other youth councils and visit Washington D.C. Youth Council President, Nathan Taylor reported that five students from Superior are scheduled to attend the conference: Taylor, Natalie Price, Mira Estatico, Jasmine Ortega and Leia Jimenez.

The Town of Superior began sponsoring a Town Youth Council in 2016. Since 2016, students in grades 8 through 12 were eligible to participate in the council following an application process. The program is student-led with Valerie Garcia-Denogean serving as the advisor. The Youth Council has helped to plan and design the playground at the U.S. 60 Park and Swimming Pool Park; they are also responsible for planning the Fourth of July and Trunk or Treat events each year.

During COVID, the youth group found ways to offer activities that would be safe for the community and still volunteered at the Senior Center as needed. The youth group attends the League of Arizona Cities and Towns conference every year and this year the Juniors and Seniors, who have been participating in the program and volunteering, will be attending the National League of Cities and Towns Conference in Washington D.C. During their trip they will also visit the U.S.

LOST hosts first Hashbrowns, History and Hiking event

On Friday, Feb. 10, the Legends of Superior Trails Inc. hosted the first Hashbrowns, History and Hiking event for 2023, presenting the History of Pinal City.

This once historic mining capital now sits quietly in ruins. Scott Wood, a retired archeologist from the Tonto National Forest, gave a presentation on the storied town and provided a guided hike into the area.

Three events remain in the series, which provides a deep dive into a variety of historical topics about the Town of Superior. Tickets include a hearty breakfast during the presentation followed by a guided hike.

Friday, Feb. 17 – Geological History of Superior: Have you ever wondered how the copper was formed in the mountains? Join ASU Geology professor Dr. Steve Semken as he gives an in-depth presentation on the geological history of Superior. Following his presentation, guests will hike on the Queen Creek Canyon segment of the LOST for an up-close explanation of the formations. Purchase your tickets for this event online: <https://conta.cc/3jP8psT>

Friday, March 3 – History of U.S 60 & Miami-Superior Highway: The Queen Creek Canyon segment of the LOST was the original alignment for the now heavily used U.S.60 highway. The first million-dollar highway was the first road that connected Miami and Superior, which created an important trading route. Local historian and retired ADOT Engineer Rick Powers will provide an in-depth presentation on the highway and its history. Following his presentation, guests will hike from the chamber office to the Queen Creek Canyon segment for additional learning and presentations. Order your tickets for this presentation online: <https://conta.cc/3Cn7l5T>

Saturday, March 18 – Architectural History of Superior: Mining towns were often built quickly and usually did not have much flare to the local architecture. The businesses that sprang up during the booms often left a lasting mark. Join Becky Caroli from Westland Resources as she will share more about the architectural history of Superior and Jack Davey who designed segments of the town. The presentation will include a guided tour of downtown Superior. Purchase your tickets for this event online: <https://conta.cc/3vU53HE>

Each of the presentations will be held at the Superior Chamber of Commerce in the Anderson Room, located at 165 Main St. in downtown Superior, Arizona. The doors for the event will open at 7:30 a.m. and the presentation will begin at 8:15 p.m. Tickets are $30 per person. These events are a fundraiser for the Legends of Superior Trails Inc. a 501c3 organization.

For more information or to purchase tickets over the phone please call the Legends of Superior Trails at 602-935-9034 or email lostinsuperioraz@gmail.com.

Superior's Nathan Taylor among 39 Flinn Scholarship finalists

Nearly 40 Arizona high-school seniors will interview in March for a chance to be named a Class of 2023 Flinn Scholar.

The 39 Flinn Scholarship Finalists, who represent 35 traditional public, charter, and private high schools from six Arizona counties, were selected from about 80 Semifinalists who interviewed earlier this month.

The four high schools with two Finalists each are Basha High School of Chandler, BASIS Tucson North, Campo Verde High School of Gilbert, and Hamilton High School of Chandler.

The Flinn Scholarship, a merit-based award given by the Phoenix-based Flinn Foundation since 1986, includes funding for tuition, housing, meals, and study abroad at an Arizona public university—a value of more than $130,000.

Twenty Arizona high-school seniors are selected each year as Flinn Scholars and attend the Honors colleges of Arizona State University, Northern Arizona University, and the University of Arizona.

The Flinn Scholars Class of 2023 will be announced in April.

“We started with nearly 1,050 applications from students who excel in the classroom and as leaders on campus and in the community. These 39 rose to the top, and I know our Selection Committee will be challenged to select just 20 students to become our next class of Flinn Scholars,” said Anne Lassen, Flinn Foundation vice president, scholarship and education initiatives. “We look forward to getting to know our Flinn Scholarship Finalists more and having them learn about the opportunities that could await them at Arizona’s outstanding public universities.”

Nathan is one of two Pinal County students named as a finalist. He joins Riley Biter who attends Poston Butte High School in San Tan Valley.

Volunteers needed for Foster Care Review Board

The Foster Care Review Board (FCRB), a program within the Dependent Children’s Services Division of the Arizona Supreme Court, is seeking volunteers. Statewide, the FCRB has about 108 Boards and a little over 500 volunteer positions filled by dedicated board members who have a desire to advocate on behalf of children in Arizona’s foster care system. In Gila and Pinal Counties, the FCRB facilitates 10 boards which are each comprised of 5 citizens from the community. The Board members are appointed by the Presiding Judge of each county’s Juvenile Court.

“We have an urgent need to fill vacancies in both counties,” explained Gioia Kaid who works for the Arizona Supreme Court. Currently there are five vacancies in Gila County and 15 in Pinal County.

Foster Care Review Board volunteers commit to meeting one weekday per month to review the cases of children who are in out-of-home care. The meetings are completed via video conference. Each Board reviews its assigned cases until permanency is achieved. As children return home, are adopted, have guardianship granted or age out of the system, new cases are added to the Board’s review day. The Board makes recommendations to the Juvenile Court and interested parties involved in the case. Currently, Boards in Gila and Pinal Counties are reviewing the cases of about 900 children. Volunteers receive the training needed to serve in this role.

Jesse Leetham is starting his third term serving on the Foster Care Review Board in Gila County. Leetham is an active member of his community, serving on the Globe City Council and several other boards.

“I enjoy serving on this board, it is a great feeling to help both the children and parents, and be advocates to ensure they get what they need,” he explained.

Leetham also explained that the board members receive training and serving on the Foster Care Review board isn’t as demanding as serving as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA).

“For those wanting to be service in these roles, but maybe don’t have enough time to serve in a CASA role, this might be a better fit,” he explained.

In preparation for a board meeting, volunteers receive court documents and other case materials via a secured website about 10 days before the review date. Board members prepare questions to clarify and gather information with the attending interested parties (case managers, attorneys, parents, foster parents, counselors, licensing workers, Court Appointed Special Advocates, etc.).

On the day of the review, an FCRB staff member (program specialist) facilitates the case reviews. Interested parties for each case have an opportunity to appear before the Board and speak about their concerns, successes, wants and needs. The Board asks questions and considers all information available before making recommendations. The program specialist prepares a written report which includes the Board’s recommendations and statements given by the interested parties. The report is distributed to the Juvenile Court and all case participants.

To become a volunteer, you must be at least 21 years of age and pass a fingerprint background check. You can request an application by going to the FCRB website at: www.AZFCRB.org or by calling 520-388-4300. You can also email FCRBT@courts.az.gov to request an application.

Another way to get involved is a program with similar requirements called Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), in which volunteers are appointed by the Court to advocate for a specific child with whom they are paired. To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer visit, www.AZCASAVolunteer.org.

Superior Enterprise Center announces Small Business Bootcamp

On Friday, March 26, the Superior Enterprise Center will host a Small Business Bootcamp. The event will begin at 10:30 a.m. and end at 6:30 p.m.

Participants can expect to take away from the program: a defined target customer value proposition and business model to sustain impact. You will gather a network of business mentors and advisors while making meaningful connections with other founders in Superior. Those who attend will also learn to refine their business pitch while creating actionable steps for their business.

For more information on the Business Bootcamp and programs from Seed Spot, please contact Arlynn Godinez at arlynn@rebuildsuperioraz.org

Encouragement for Living God's Way

Looking at 2 Chronicles 20:21-23: in the midst of being surrounded by great enemies, God brought a great victory. The people fasted and prayed. The prophet prophesied. They all showed up on the battlefield, ready to fight the enemy. The worship team brought the breakthrough. When they all began to sing and praise, the Lord set ambushes against the enemy, and they were defeated.

Some people have the concept: it's just some old songs we like, set to music. No, not at all! This was "heart felt" music, from deep within the heart and spirit of the people – it was true worship to Almighty God. It was filled with His power and glory!

Oh, you can fake it, like some do on Sunday morning. The media is filled to overflowing with music, and it is a very big seller. Yes, God loves worship, and the angels in heaven fill the atmosphere with loving worship. When you are really sincere and deeply worshipping from your heart – you are able to get lost in a feeling of ecstasy.

Real worship comes from deep inside of you, releasing healing and miracles. You can get lost in the "cloud of glory" that surrounds you. Don't be intimidated, dig in and give it all you can. To God be the Glory!!

He is Awesome in Power and Glory!

Wow! Thank you, Jesus!!
