OBITUARY

Ruben T. Castro

Ruben T. Castro, at 92 years of age, passed away on June 21, 2023, in his home surrounded by his wife and family in Superior, Arizona. Ruben was born in Miami, Arizona to Miguel and Maria Castro on Jan. 18, 1931. He was the second of five siblings raised at Hewitt Station (La Posta) before moving to Superior, Arizona.

Ruben attended Superior High School and graduated in 1950. He began his career with Magma Copper Railroad shortly following graduation. During his 32 years of employment, he took a leave of absence, serving two years in the US Army during the Korean War. He was awarded his Paratrooper Jump wings in the 82nd Airborne Division. Completing his tour with an honorable discharge, he returned to his former employer. He quickly worked up to the foreman position, working side by side with his crew. He was a state certified railroad track inspector.

Ruben married Estella P. Quiroz on Oct. 22, 1960, at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Superior, Arizona. Together, they raised five children, devoting his life to his family and God. He was a very religious man and dedicated his life to serving the church as a Eucharistic Minister.

Inspired by the Lord, Ruben often portrayed Jesus Christ in the passion play during Holy Week and was a member of the Knights of Columbus. He enjoyed spending time outdoors camping, fishing, hiking, and writing poems that he shared with family and friends.

Ruben is preceded in death by both parents Miguel and Maria Castro, his sisters Connie Vega and Jane Guzman, and his brothers Mike Castro and Camilo Castro.

Ruben is survived by his wife, Estella Q. Castro; his sons, Michael Ruben Q. Castro (Cheryl), John Q. Castro (Janna), and Steven Q. Castro (Sheryl); and his daughters, Anna M. Scholnick (Raul) and Diana Cook (David). He is also survived by his grandchildren, Michael Xavier Castro, Raul Scholnick III, Katie Castro, Cody Scholnick, Austin Castro, David Lee Cook Jr., Maribel Castro, Alayna Castro, Maria Cook, and Kai Castro; and great grandchild, Xzaylea Membrilla.

Services for Ruben will be held Saturday, July 8, 2023, at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church. Visitation is set to begin at 8 a.m. followed by Rosary at 8:30 a.m. and Mass to be celebrated at 9 a.m. He will be laid to rest at Fairview Cemetery.

Make a difference in the life of a child – volunteer as a Court Appointed Special Advocate: Q & A with CASA of Arizona

Arizona – July is National Make a Difference to Children Month and CASA of Arizona wants to take a moment to answer some most asked questions about volunteering and how you can truly make a difference in the life of a child.

What is CASA?

CASA stands for Court Appointed Special Advocate. CASA is a program administered by the Arizona Supreme Court that trains and equips volunteers across the state with the knowledge and skills needed to advocate for children that are placed in the foster care system due to abuse or neglect. These volunteers make a life-changing difference for these children.

What will I do as a CASA volunteer?

You will advocate for the child! Volunteers meet with their assigned child each month and learn about all aspects of their life including if the child's needs are being met while in foster care. As a CASA volunteer, you will advocate for the child's best interests by providing court reports, attending hearings—and acting as a support to the child for the duration of the case. A CASA volunteer creates and fosters a relationship not only to be a voice for that child but to convey to the court the child's wishes for a permanent home.

Why does a child in foster care need a CASA?

For many abused or neglected children, their CASA volunteer is one of the positive, reliable adults in their lives. In the course of a case, these children may face numerous changes including placements, friends, teachers and much more. CASA volunteers frequently become the only consistent adult presence in the child's life.

Research shows that children who have been assigned a CASA volunteer that advocates for their needs tend to receive necessary services sooner, for a longer duration, and more consistently than those children without a CASA volunteer. Judges have also observed that children with CASAs have better chances of being placed in permanent homes and are less likely to re-enter foster care.

What does the training look like?

All volunteers complete 30 hours of pre-service training. Volunteers are educated about child welfare issues including child maltreatment, permanency planning, teamwork and communication, case assessment, court report writing, and court policies. Ongoing in-service training and support are provided in every county program, including opportunities for online training.

I work full-time. Can I still volunteer as a CASA?

CASA volunteers schedule their own time, except for the required attendance at court hearings and team meetings. Each case is unique. A CASA volunteer spends an average of 10-12 hours a month working on the case. Volunteers balance family responsibilities, full-time or part-time employment, and/or education along with their CASA duties.

What are the requirements?

CASA volunteers do not need any prior special training and come from all walks of life. Anyone 21 years of age or older, who can pass a thorough background check and complete 30 hours of training, is encouraged to apply. To learn more about becoming a CASA volunteer for a child from Gila County, visit www.CASAofGilaCounty.org

Are there other volunteer opportunities available?

Another way to get involved is a program with similar requirements called the Foster Care Review Board (FCRB). A judge appoints volunteers to a 5-member panel that meets online one weekday per month to review the cases of children in foster care. To learn more about becoming a FCRB volunteer or to watch a video about volunteering, visit, AZFCRB.org.

CASA of Arizona and the Foster Care Review Board operate in all 15 counties in Arizona and are open year-round to recruit and train volunteers to help the children in Arizona's foster care system. The programs are administered by the Arizona Supreme Court. Follow CASA of Arizona on Facebook @CASAofArizona or Instagram @CASA_of_Arizona.

Crafting meet up every Wednesday

Superior and the greater Copper Corridor area is home to many local artists and crafters. Local painting classes at local businesses inspired many local crafters and friends to find a place to gather to work on their crafts and projects in a group setting.

Tina Gutierrez and Terry “Moby” Guzman worked with the Town of Superior to find a space to gather with other local crafters and artisans. Many often find that working with others in a group is a nice way to add to the creativity of projects and also share skills and techniques.

Every Wednesday the group meets to work on their own their individual crafts; there are no set projects but everyone is invited to come and work on their projects at the Superior Town Hall, (Roosevelt School), 199 Lobb Ave. The class is located in the kitchen room located in the older section of the building. Everyone begins gathering around 9 a.m. and crafting ensues until 1 p.m.

Adult crafters are welcome; the group does ask that children not attend.

The Kearny Pool is the place to be when the weather hits 109 degrees!

THIS PROPOSED INCREASE IS EXCLUSIVE OF INCREASED PRIMARY PROPERTY TAXES RECEIVED FROM NEW CONSTRUCTION. THE INCREASE IS ALSO EXCLUSIVE OF ANY CHANGES THAT MAY OCCUR FROM PROPERTY TAX LEVIES FOR VOTER APPROVED BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OR BUDGET AND TAX OVERRIDES.

ALL INTERESTED CITIZENS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE PUBLIC HEARING ON THE TAX INCREASE THAT IS SCHEDULED TO BE HELD ON JULY 17, 2023 AT 5:30 PM AT PINAL COUNTY ADMINISTRATION BUILDING (KEARNY MAGISTRATE COURT CHAMBERS), 355 ALDEN RD., KEARNY, ARIZONA.

Handicapped individuals with special accessibility needs may contact the Town of Kearny at (520) 363-5547 or (800) 367-8939 (TDD Relay). If possible such requests should be made 72 hours in advance. Persons who require materials in accessible format or require a foreign language interpreter or materials in a language other than English call the above referenced numbers at least five days in advance.

The Hayden Library also purchased two new VR goggles for the library thanks to a SaddleBrooke Community Outreach grant. Orlando Aguirre tries them out, fresh from the box.

The dangers of overzealous parents in youth sports

By Stefany Shaibi, PT, DPT

Youth athletics in the U.S. are starting younger and younger. Some kids are engaging in competitive sports as early as age six! This means that by their teen years some young athletes have already put in hundreds of hours of training and as a result extra stress on their growing bodies. As an associate professor of physical therapy at Creighton University, I urge our students to consider both the physical and psychological effects that rigorous training programs can have on the well-being of young athletes. Likewise, it is advisable for parents of youth athletes to do the same. The desire to be recognized as an elite youth athlete is understandable because of the potential to obtain top athletic scholarships. However, the overzealous nature of a parent's desire for their child to excel in sports can often blur the lines between ambition and obsession. Youth athletes that possess natural talent within their sport begin to feel extreme pressure from being exposed to excessive training, physical exhaustion and injuries, thus, causing youth athletes to feel isolated, develop low self-esteem, and experience burnout.

SPORTS

Overuse injuries due to excessive repetition and training are becoming more common in youth athletics. As a former competitive athlete and physical therapist, I have seen an influx of strains and sprains. Even worse, treating younger patients with serious injuries like an ACL tear or stress fracture is becoming more commonplace. In fact, surgeons have had to develop new techniques for their young patients to avoid permanent damage to growth plates when they reconstruct the ligament.

On the mental wellness front, even if an athlete has recovered from a physical injury, mentally they may not be ready to return to their sport. It is best to be mindful of your young athlete's mental state. As competitors, they may succumb to social pressure, fearing the consequences of missing an important game or disappointing others. Importantly, young athletes may feel compelled to play through pain. This is highly risky as it can result in improper healing of injuries, further injuries, or, worse, long-term impairments that adversely affect their sport performance and quality of life as they age.

Now that school is out of session, here are a few tips to consider when raising a youth athlete:

- Look out for signs of athletic burnout like disinterest, moodiness, and chronic fatigue
- Encourage your child to explore other sports just for fun
- Consult a sports medicine professional to implement preventive care this summer like strength training
- During the season allow adequate time for rest and recovery after practices and games

At the end of the day, we must consider the end goal rather than short term success when developing a child's athletic ability. Training can be done correctly and effectively if preventive measures are taken. For the love of the game, we need to let youth athletes enjoy performing and getting to the next level without enforcing the fear of failure or not being good enough.
