to prepare for their next game, coach Denhalter said, "Tightening up our mental muscles by focusing on our individual and team discipline. The Panthers will play on Friday, Aug. 26, at Anthem Prep with a kickoff time of 7 p.m.

Prickly Pear Festival a wild success!

The 11th Annual Prickly Pear Festival hosted by Pete Casillas and Regenerating Sonora met a few challenges this year: torrential rain storms, a lack of prickly pear fruit...and a few logistical challenges as they opted to change the venue for the annual event.

Even without an official foraging class coupled with a massive rain storm, downtown Superior remained full with residents and visitors visiting vendors and local businesses enjoying prickly pear products. From Ice Cream and Nopales dishes to Prickly Pear Wine spritzers and margaritas, there were a variety of prickly pear food and drinks to try.

The day included activities at the Boyce Thompson Arboretum along with lectures and entertainment throughout Town.

Sue Anderson steps down as Chamber President

Sue Anderson has resigned as President of the Superior Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber is hosting a recognition event on Sept. 23 to celebrate her many years of service.

Sue has been instrumental in the growth and success of the Chamber. Under her leadership, the Chamber was able to purchase the building at 165 Main Street, where they operate the Visitor Center and run operations for the Chamber.

Sue has led many community-focused Chamber initiatives such as the popular Annual Superior Home Tour, which has been and continues to be a major tourism event for the town. She also created “Let’s Talk Trash”, a town-wide trash pickup event, that brought the community together for a common goal of making Superior a great place for residents to live and for businesses to thrive.

Moving forward, Sue will continue with her support of the Superior Chamber of Commerce as a member of the board.

The recognition event will take place at the Superior Chamber of Commerce building at 165 Main Street at 5:30 p.m. on Sept. 23. Guests are asked to RSVP by emailing superiorazchamber@outlook.com.
