Superior's backs more healthy now with new chiropractor in town

By Cat Brown
Superior Sun

Superior has a new chiropractor in town. Dr. Susan King has opened an office in Pam Peck's real estate facility on N. Magma Street. Dr. King's office is open on Tuesdays and Thursdays 2 to 7 p.m. The new Superior location is not Dr. King's primary office; she has been working out of her main office in Apache Junction for 22 years. For the past 10 years she worked two days a week in the Town of Kearny, but recently the building that housed her practice in Kearny was sold and she went looking for a new location. She decided to open a new business in Superior in May of this year.

Dr. King has been a practicing chiropractor and licensed in the State of Arizona since 1989. She went to Palmer College of Chiropractor in Davenport, Iowa.

"Palmer's reputation is top notch par none," King said. "It's the gold standard for chiropractor."

She does full chiropractic and she has a couple techniques she uses: she has a Thomas full drop table and she also uses an activator tool which is less invasive for those people that don't like the force of the table. She does not do "twist and crank" on her patients. "It's too traumatic, too many things can happen," King explained. "It can be done improperly, and if you can hurt soft structure; no sense in inducing pain when people come in pain."

It's very important to Dr. King that her patients feel comfortable. She has given her office a homey feel. She wants to eliminate any possibility of white coat syndrome and hopes her new patients feel comfortable in her office surroundings.

"I like to be known as a person," she said. "I like people to know who I am, rather than just know me as a professional in health care."

As a new patient, you can expect to have a one-on-one interview with Dr. King. She likes to tailor her treatment specifically for each patient which means she takes thorough history of each new patient's medical history, medications they might take, and any surgeries they might have had.

Dr. King comes with a companion. When you visit her, you will also meet her dog Lovey, a pure breed, two-year-old Akita. Lovey is being trained as a therapy dog. Dr. King hopes one day to be able to use Lovey for children wards at hospitals, hospice, and nursing homes. Anywhere she says, "where therapy dogs will bring joy and contentment."

Sometimes Lovely is not the only animal in the office. Dr. King does adjust animals. She has an active dog and cat adjusting practice. She says the animals "need care just like we do." According to Dr. King, little dogs like to jump a lot and may have back issues and larger dogs can have some hip issues that need to be addressed. Though she asks that if you have an animal that needs to be seen that you don't bring them into straight into the office, but instead you call first and make an appointment for them.

Dr. King is excited about being in town and she hopes to be practicing in Superior for a long time. King Chiropractic, Superior Office, 18 N. Magma Ave, Superior, AZ 85173. Tel: 480-628-6435

Superior kids head back to school

Guess what, kids? Your parents are super-excited that you are heading back to school! They may even dance a joyous jig the likes of which comes only once a year. We wanted to remind all drivers (parents or non-parents) that now the school is in session, you should slow down when you think children might be present. Pay attention! The speed limit is 15 mph in school zones. And kids, if you catch your parents doing their happy dance, be sure to snap a picture. Send them to us at editor@minersunbasin.com. We'd love to post them on our Facebook page.

In Your Biz

Superior Environmental Services

Superior Environmental Services is owned by Mario and April Sanchez. What started as weed control and landscaping service has become a full service facility maintenance company. For 17 years Mario has been focussed on growing his business in the Superior area. His parents originally found Superior after investing in some properties in Apache Junction and eventually Superior. The family ventured from their roots in California and after a while Mario found a niche business concept and he has been working the business ever since.

His first business clients included a contract with the Town of Superior, when then Town Manager, Chris Zapata hired Superior Environmental Services to maintain the community parks and facilities. That experience helped him to expand his business and today his company contracts with many of the local mines for facility maintenance, landscaping and revegetation services.

In the revegetation projects they have worked on, Superior Environmental Services has taken disturbed mining lands and restored it to a natural state. Most recently they have worked to restore lands on the Tonto National Forest where drill rigs had been placed. Due to Forest Service regulations most of this work has had to be done by hand.

Mario and April have made it a priority to hire local employees. They have eight employees and all of them are from Superior. This is something that they are very proud to say.

"We care deeply for our employees and our community," Mario said. He credits the success of his business to hiring and caring for the employees he hires.

Managing cash flow is often a huge challenge for most small businesses. His best business advice? "Avoid having a lot of debt, work within the money you make," he explained.

While Superior Environmental Services does not focus on residential landscaping services, they do provide some services for residential customers.

The "In Your Biz" column is sponsored weekly by the Superior Chamber of Commerce in an effort to further promote their business members. To learn more about the Superior Chamber of Commerce you can visit their website www.superiorarizonachamber.org or call them at 520-689-0200. The Chamber meets the third Wednesday of every month at their building 165 Main St. in Superior, Arizona. Those planning on attending the Chamber luncheons do need to RSVP prior to the meeting, please call Deb McKee to RSVP at 520-827-1773.

Valdez (Career Investigation-Junior Event) and Amber Alonzo (Career Investigation-Senior Event).

CVIT Board Members Mike Fane (Member) and Louie Rabago (President) attended the trip and served as chaperones to assist in helping Mrs. Valerie Garcia-Denogean make sure that each student made it to their events and activities safely, on-time, and provided support and guidance throughout the entire week. The students had the opportunity to participate in many extra-curricular activities and tours that included: Line dancing and concert by Preston James (former contest on the Voice and on Blake Shelton's team) at the WildHorse Saloon, City Tour of Nashville, Dinner Cruise /Show and Fireworks on the famous General Jackson Steamboat, Hard Rock Café, Honky Tonk Row Sightseeing, Ryman Theater, Country Music Hall of Fame Museum, and FCCLA Concert held at the First Tennessee Park featuring country artist Dan & Shay, trip concluded with a Gala. It was a wonderful trip and opportunity for the students of Superior HS FCCLA to experience.

Cassandra Drennan said, "Nashville was a once in a lifetime experience. I will hold the memories forever!" Ashley Lira said, "Going to Nashville allowed me to experience Tennessee in amazing ways and I now have lifelong friends from other chapters in Arizona." Mrs. Garcia said, "I would like to thank Mr. Guzman and the CVIT Board for their continued support to our FCCLA organization and our CTE Programs. I appreciate the CVIT Board President, Louie Rabago and Board Member, Mike Fane for taking a week out their summer to chaperone eight truly deserving young ladies who truly represent excellence in CTE representing the small and rural schools. I also want to thank Mila Besich -Lira and the Optimist Organization for sponsoring a dinner at the Hard Rock Cafe. We have some interesting memories at the Hard Rock!! The $200 was much appreciated." If anyone who like to make a donation or a tax credit donation for the SHS FCCLA National trips, please contact Valerie Garcia-Denogean and designate your donation to our future leaders.
