Oracle Scenic Corridor Revitalization group to meet Aug. 17

Oracle residents are invited to a community meeting to be part of designing safety features and ideas for the revitalization of American Avenue. The hands-on activities will take place at the Oracle Community Center, 685 E.
American Ave. on Aug. 17 at 5:30 p.m.

The committee's goal is to improve safety for cars and pedestrians, create a lane for cyclists, create a pathway for pedestrians, and revamp American Ave. so it looks like a Main Street instead of a highway.

During the meetings in May, six areas were identified where safety and design are an issue. They are: Circle K/
Calle Futura; Sue & Jerry's; Linda Vista/Way of Bean; Patio Café/Oracle Inn; Library to Post Office; both entrances onto American Avenue from Hwy 77. The purpose of the meeting on Aug. 17 is to have attendees suggest design solutions for these areas.

Four employees from Pinal County, including Supervisor Jeff McClure, will be attending the meeting so they can directly hear the ideas of Oracle residents.

Your voice is important – please plan to attend.

Rural Policy Forum hosted in Globe-Miami

Approximately 300 rural leaders from across Arizona gathered in Miami-Globe for the 16th Annual Rural Policy Forum. The forum is hosted each August usually in a rural community.

Attendees were treated to dinner events that showcased the unique local flair and foods of the region. During the Thursday evening event, the Superior Dance Company performed at the Cobre Valley Recreational Center in Miami.

During the conference State Representative David Cook (Globe), spoke and welcomed all of the participants and shared how he is working at the legislature to be an advocate for rural communities. His district includes most of the Copper Corridor all the way to Flagstaff, Williams, Snowflake and Taylor.

He stated to the crowd that Arizona's elections are not rigged. "If they were rigged, then why would I have been elected?" he said.

He also shared information on his recent visit to the Ukraine with a delegation of non-elected leaders from Arizona stressing the importance of Arizona increasing their international relationships to grow our economy.

Cook also spoke about how important public schools are

Copper Corridor residents: Help ensure digital equity

Recently Governor Katie Hobbs announced that Arizona would be receiving almost $1 billion from the Federal government to improve high speed internet access across the state of Arizona. From the metro areas to the most remote locations of rural Arizona, this funding will be the most significant investment to-date.

Ensuring that the funding is spent to benefit all reaches of Arizona, the Digital Equity Institute and the Arizona Department of Commerce are conducting a survey for Arizona residents and business owners and organizations to fill out. Surveys need to be completed by Aug. 17, 2023. At this time there have not been many submissions from the Copper Corridor or Gila County.

Help make sure the internet needs of the Copper Corridor are heard. It takes about 15 minutes to complete this important survey.

You can fill out the survey online by using these links:

in rural Arizona and how the needs in Maricopa County are not the same as rural Arizona.

Todd Pryor, Town Manager of Superior, was also invited to speak about the Town of Superior's success utilizing brownfields grants from the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality. Pryor also spoke about the work of the Copper Communities Blight Busters program that is funded by an EPA region 9 grant.

The conference included plenty of time for networking and learning. This year there was a focus on strategic planning for communities and organizations.

The Superior Chamber of Commerce, Town of Superior, Rebuild Superior Inc., Superior Food Bank and Boyce Thompson Arboretum all had attendees at the event. Resolution Copper provided scholarships for many of the local attendees from Superior. The Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition also had attendees at the event.

Senator Mark Kelly visits Mammoth

Last week Senator Mark Kelly visited the Town of Mammoth to congratulate Town officials on their recent grant of $140,000 which was used to purchase two new police trucks for the Town of Mammoth. Senator Kelly advocated for the Town to receive the grant funding which allowed them to purchase the new vehicles.

One of the trucks arrived in June and the second will be delivered in a few months.

“This is the first time the Town of Mammoth has ever had new vehicles for our police department,” said Mayor Patsy Armenta. The last three vehicles the town acquired for the police department were used vehicles donated by the City of Yuma.

“One of the best parts of representing Arizona in the Senate is getting to meet with Mayors and communities in every corner of our state. Visiting Mammoth and being hosted by Mayor Armenta and the Town Council, I got to see the impact of the funding we secured for the new police truck. As the son of two police officers, one of my top priorities is ensuring law enforcement have what they need to keep our communities safe,” said Senator Kelly.

“We are all very excited and thankful for all the Senator Kelly has helped us with to receive this grant,” Armenta said.
